Modern Death Haider Warraich, 2017-02-07 There is no more universal truth in life than death No matter who you are it is certain that one day you will die but the mechanics and understanding of that experience will differ greatly in today's modern age Dr Haider Warraich is a young and brilliant new voice in the conversation about death and dying started by Dr Sherwin Nuland and Atul Gawande Dr Warraich takes a broader look at how we die today from the cellular level up to the very definition of death itself The most basic aspects of dying the whys wheres whens and hows are almost nothing like what they were mere decades ago Beyond its ecology epidemiology and economics the very ethos of death has changed Modern Death Dr Warraich's debut book will explore the rituals and language of dying that have developed in the last century and how modern technology has not only changed the hows whens and wheres of death but the what of death Delving into the vast body of research on the evolving nature of death Modern Death will provide readers with an enriched understanding of how death differs from the past what our ancestors got right and how trends and events have transformed this most final of human experiences Proceedings of the XIV INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM SYMORG 2014 Aleksandar Marković, Slađana Barjaktarović Rakočević, 2014-06-05 Celebrating Life Customs around the World Victoria R. Williams, 2016-11-21 This book documents hundreds of customs and traditions practiced in countries outside of the United States showcasing the diversity of birth coming of age and death celebrations worldwide From the beginning of our lives to the end all of humanity celebrates life's milestones through traditions and unique customs In the United States we have specific events like baby showers rites of passage such as Bat and Bar Mitzvahs and sweet 16 birthday parties and sober end of life traditions like obituaries and funeral services that honor those who have died But what kinds of customs and traditions are practiced in other countries How do people in other cultures welcome babies prepare to enter into adulthood and commemorate the end of the lives of loved ones This three volume encyclopedia covers more than 300 birth life and death customs with the books content organized chronologically by life stage Volume 1 focuses on birth and childhood customs Volume 2 documents adolescent and early adulthood customs and Volume 3 looks at aging and death customs The entries in the first volume examine pre birth traditions such as baby showers and other gift giving events and post birth customs such as naming ceremonies child rearing practices and traditions performed to ward off evil or promote good health The second volume contains information about rites of passage as children become adults including indigenous initiations marriage customs and religious ceremonies The final volume concludes with coverage on customs associated with aging and death such as retirement celebrations elaborate funeral processions and the creation of fantasy coffins The set features beautiful color inserts that illustrate examples of celebrations and ceremonies and includes an appendix of excerpts from primary documents that include legislation on government accepted names wedding vows and maternity paternity leave regulations "I Love Learning; I Hate School" Susan D. Blum, 2016-01-13 Frustrated by her students performance her relationships with them and her own daughter's problems in school Susan D Blum a professor of anthropology set out to understand why her students found their educational experience at a top tier institution so profoundly difficult and unsatisfying Through her research and in conversations with her students she discovered a troubling mismatch between the goals of the university and the needs of students In I Love Learning I Hate School Blum tells two intertwined but inseparable stories the results of her research into how students learn contrasted with the way conventional education works and the personal narrative of how she herself was transformed by this understanding Blum concludes that the dominant forms of higher education do not match the myriad forms of learning that help students people in general master meaningful and worthwhile skills and knowledge Students are capable of learning huge amounts but the ways higher education is structured often leads them to fail to learn More than that it leads to ill effects In this critique of higher education infused with anthropological insights Blum explains why so much is going wrong and offers suggestions for how to bring classroom learning more in line with appropriate forms of engagement She challenges our system of education and argues for a reintegration of learning with life
