Question Paper Of Life Sciences In 2014 March:

Research Handbook on Intellectual Property and the Life Sciences Duncan Matthews, Herbert Zech, 2017-06-30 Intellectual property IP is a key component of the life sciences one of the most dynamic and innovative fields of technology today At the same time the relationship between IP and the life sciences raises new public policy dilemmas The Research Handbook on Intellectual Property and the Life Sciences comprises contributions by leading experts from academia and industry to provide in depth analyses of key topics including pharmaceuticals diagnostics and genes plant innovations stem cells the role of competition law and access to medicines The Research Handbook focuses on the relationship between IP and the life sciences in Europe and the United States complemented by country specific case studies on Australia Brazil China India Japan Kenya South Africa and Thailand to provide a truly international perspective Interdisciplinary and International Perspectives on 3D Printing in Education Santos, Ieda M., Ali, Nagla, Aarepattamannil, Shaljan, 2018-11-23
Although 3D printing technologies are still a rarity in many classrooms and other educational settings their far reaching applications across a wide range of subjects make them a desirable instructional aid Effective implementation of these technologies can engage learners through project based learning and exploration of objects Interdisciplinary and International Perspectives on 3D Printing in Education is a collection of advanced research that facilitates discussions on interdisciplinary fields and international perspectives from kindergarten to higher education to inform the uses of 3D printing in education from diverse and broad perspectives Covering topics such as computer aided software learning theories and educational policy this book is ideally designed for educators practitioners instructional designers and researchers White Paper on Science and Technology, 2015 The Handbook for Market Research for Life Sciences Companies Jean-Francois Denault, 2017-09-19
As innovation moves from the lab to the market a new research phase begins for the entrepreneur the market research phase Inspired by a new technology that can change the world critical questions need to be addressed Is there a market for my innovation Who are my clients What do they need Is my innovation filling that gap in the market Who are my competitors How are they approaching the market If these questions are unanswered entrepreneurs meet potential investors or partners with only a basic understanding of their market The objective of this book is to fill this gap It is a practical manual that gives entrepreneurs real world advice and tools to build a solid market model The book provides tips models and tools entrepreneurs can use to collect interpret and present their market and integrate it into their business plan What the entrepreneur learns in this book will help him throughout his journey After going over the market research process he will learn how to design and use a number of market research tools and how to adapt them in a life science context From building a web survey to preparing interviews to doing your own secondary research this handbook will help him gain a comprehensive understanding of how to perform his own market research activities and how to analyze his data Finally a number of frameworks such as the TAM SAM SOM as well as the KANO Model are described so that he can efficiently share what he has learned using models that simply yet effectively shares findings The metabolic pathways and environmental controls of hydrocarbon biodegradation in marine ecosystems Joel E. Kostka, Andreas P. Teske, Samantha B. Joye, Ian Head, 2015-05-15 Biodegradation mediated by indigenous microbial communities is the ultimate fate of the majority of oil hydrocarbon that enters the marine environment The aim of this Research Topic is to highlight recent advances in our knowledge of the pathways and controls of microbially catalyzed hydrocarbon degradation in marine ecosystems with emphasis on the response of microbial communities to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico In this Research Topic we encouraged original research and reviews on the ecology of hydrocarbon degrading bacteria the rates and mechanisms of biodegradation and the bioremediation of discharged oil under situ as well as near in situ conditions

York Times often what looks like fact based journalism is not It s advertising Not only are ads indistinguishable from reporting the Internet we rely on for news opinions and even impartial sales content is now the ultimate corporate tool Reader beware content without a corporate sponsor lurking behind it is rare indeed Black Ops Advertising dissects this rapid rise of sponsored content a strategy whereby advertisers have become publishers and publishers create advertising all under the guise of unbiased information Covert selling mostly in the form of native advertising and content marketing has so blurred the lines between editorial content and marketing message that it is next to impossible to tell real news from paid endorsements In the 21st century instead of telling us to buy buy BUY marketers engage with us so that we share share SHARE the ultimate subtle sell Why should this concern us Because personal data personal relationships and our very identities are being repackaged in pursuit of corporate profits Because tracking and manipulation of data make likes and tweets and followers the currency of importance rather than scientific achievement or artistic talent or information the electorate needs to fully function in a democracy And because we are being manipulated to spend time with technology to interact with friends to always be on even when it is to our physical and mental detriment     Understanding West Africa's Ebola Epidemic Ibrahim Abdullah,Ismail Rashid,2017-10-15 From 2013 to 2015 over 11 000 people across West Africa lost their lives to the deadliest outbreak of the Ebola virus in history Crucially this epidemic marked the first time the virus was able to spread beyond rural areas to major cities overturning conventional assumptions about its epidemiology With backgrounds ranging from development to disease control the contributors to this volume some of them based in countries affected by the Ebola epidemic consider the underlying factors that shaped this unprecedented outbreak While championing the heroic efforts of local communities and aid workers in halting the spread of the disease the contributors also reveal deep structural problems in both the countries and humanitarian agencies involved which hampered the efforts to contain the epidemic Alarming they show that little has been learned from these events with health provision remaining underfunded and poorly equipped to deal with future outbreaks Such issues they argue reflect the wider challenges we face in tackling epidemic disease in an increasingly interconnected world     2025-26 CBSE and States Boards Class-X Social Science YCT Expert Team , 2025 26 CBSE and States Boards Class X Social Science 256 495 E This book contains the previous year solved papers from 2010 to 2023     Life in Schools Peter McLaren,2015-11-17 This new edition brings McLaren s popular classic textbook into a new era of Common Core Standards and online education The book is renowned for its clear provocative classroom narratives and its coverage of political economic and social factors that are undervalued in other educational textbooks An international committee of experts ranked Life in Schools among the top twelve education books in the world     The Horn Engaging the Gulf Aleksi Ylönen,2023-12-28 This book discusses theoretical perspectives of analyzing the relations between the states and non state actors in the Horn of Africa and their counterparts in the Persian Gulf and the Middle East Crucially these relations are examined primarily from the perspective of the diplomatic economic and strategic agency of the African states and societal actors Here domestic political dynamics and local power play a significant role Aleksi Ylönen provides a historically informed investigation of recent relations that involve the Gulf States and Türkiye s resurgent interest in the Horn Africa The analysis focuses on the post Arab Spring period following the Iran nuclear deal and the war in Yemen Featuring case studies from Ethiopia Somalia and Eritrea which highlight engagements of the Horn state and societal actors primarily with the Gulf States and Türkiye the study provides an empirical analysis of the interactions and connections between the two regions     Appearance in Reality John Heil,2021-09-16 In Appearance in Reality John Heil addresses a question at the heart of metaphysics how are the appearances related to reality how does what we find in the sciences comport with what we encounter in everyday experience and in the laboratory Objects for instance

appear to be colourful noisy self contained and massively interactive Physics tells us they are dynamic swarms of colourless particles or disturbances in fields or something equally strange Is what we experience illusory present only in our minds But then what are minds Do minds elude physics Or are the physicist s depictions mere constructs with no claim to reality Perhaps reality is hierarchical physics encompasses the fundamental things the less than fundamental things are dependent on but distinct from these Heil s investigation advances a fourth possibility the scientific image what we have in physics affords our best guide to the nature of what the appearances are appearances of The Art of Screen Time Anya Kamenetz,2018-01-30 Finally an evidence based reassuring guide to what to do about kids and screens from video games to social media Today s babies often make their debut on social media with the very first sonogram They begin interacting with screens at around four months old But is this good news or bad news A wonderful opportunity to connect around the world Or the first step in creating a generation of addled screen zombies Many have been quick to declare this the dawn of a neurological and emotional crisis but solid science on the subject is surprisingly hard to come by In The Art of Screen Time Anya Kamenetz an expert on education and technology as well as a mother of two young children takes a refreshingly practical look at the subject Surveying hundreds of fellow parents on their practices and ideas and cutting through a thicket of inconclusive studies and overblown claims she hones a simple message a riff on Michael Pollan s well known food rules Enjoy Screens Not too much Mostly with others This brief but powerful dictum forms the backbone of a philosophy that will help parents moderate technology in their children s lives curb their own anxiety and create room for a happy healthy family life with and without screens 100 questions and answers for job interview Offshore Drilling Platforms PETROGAV INTERNATIONAL, This book offers you a brief but very involved look into the operations in the drilling of an oil gas wells that will help you to be prepared for job interview at oil gas companies From start to finish you ll see a general prognosis of the drilling process If you are new to the oil gas industry you ll enjoy having a leg up with the knowledge of these processes If you are a seasoned oil gas person you ll enjoy reading what you may or may not know in these pages This course provides a non technical overview of the phases operations and terminology used on offshore drilling platforms It is intended also for non drilling personnel who work in the offshore drilling exploration and production industry This includes marine and logistics personnel accounting administrative and support staff environmental professionals etc No prior experience or knowledge of drilling operations is required This course will provide participants a better understanding of the issues faced in all aspects of drilling operations with a particular focus on the unique aspects of offshore operations Landscapes of Collectivity in the Life Sciences Snait B. Gissis,Ehud Lamm,Ayelet Shavit,2018-01-12 Broad perspective on collectivity in the life sciences from microorganisms to human consensus and the theoretical and empirical opportunities and challenges Many researchers and scholars in the life sciences have become increasingly critical of the traditional methodological focus on the individual This volume counters such methodological individualism by exploring recent and influential work in the life sciences that utilizes notions of collectivity sociality rich interactions and emergent phenomena as essential explanatory tools to handle numerous persistent scientific questions in the life sciences The contributors consider case studies of collectivity that range from microorganisms to human consensus discussing theoretical and empirical challenges and the innovative methods and solutions scientists have devised The contributors offer historical philosophical and biological perspectives on collectivity and describe collective phenomena seen in insects the immune system communication and human collectivity with examples ranging from cooperative transport in the longhorn crazy ant to the evolution of autobiographical memory They examine ways of explaining collectivity including case studies and modeling approaches and explore collectivity s explanatory power They present a comprehensive look at a specific case of collectivity the Holobiont notion the idea of a multi species collective a host and diverse microorganisms and the hologenome theory which posits that the holobiont and its hologenome are a unit of adaption The volume concludes with reflections on the work of the late physicist Eshel Ben Jacob pioneer in the study of collective phenomena in living systems Contributors Oren Bader John Beatty Dinah R Davison Daniel Dor Ofer Feinerman Raghavendra Gadagkar Scott F Gilbert Snait B Gissis Deborah M Gordon James Griesemer Zachariah I Grochau Wright Erik R Hanschen Eva Jablonka Mohit Kumar Jolly Anat Kolumbus Ehud Lamm Herbert Levine Arnon Levy Xue Fei Li Elisabeth A Lloyd Yael Lubin Eva Maria Luef Ehud Meron Richard E Michod Samir Okasha Simone Pika Joan Roughgarden Eugene Rosenberg Ayelet Shavit Yael Silver Alfred I Tauber Ilana Zilber Rosenberg

Value Practices in the Life Sciences and Medicine Isabelle Dussauge,Claes-Fredrik Helgesson,Francis Lee,2015-01-29 Many deep concerns in the life sciences and medicine have to do with the enactment ordering and displacement of a broad range of values This volume articulates a pragmatist stance for the study of the making of values in society exploring various sites within life sciences and medicine and asking how values are at play This means taking seriously the work scientists regulators analysts professionals and publics regularly do in order to define what counts as proper conduct in science and health care what is economically valuable and what is known and worth knowing A number of analytical and methodological means to investigate these concerns are presented The editors introduce a way to indicate an empirically oriented research program into the enacting ordering and displacing of values They argue that a research programme of this kind makes it possible to move orthogonally to the question of what values are and thus ask how they are constituted This rectifies some central problems that arise with approaches that depend on stabilized understandings of value At the heart of it such a research programme encourages the examination of how and with what means certain things come to count as valuable and desirable how registers of value are ordered as well as displaced It further encourages a sense that these matters could be and sometimes simultaneously are otherwise Rethinking

Research Methods in an Age of Digital Journalism Michael Karlsson,Helle Sjøvaag,2018-10-18 The digital infrastructure of media production dissemination and consumption is becoming increasingly complex presenting the challenge of how we should research the digital journalism environment Digital journalism takes many forms we therefore need to revise improve adjust and even invent methods to understand emerging forms of journalism In this book scholars at the forefront of methodological innovations in digital journalism research share their insights on how to collect process and analyse the diverse expressions of digital journalism including online news search results hyperlinks and social media posts As digital journalism content often comes in the form of big data many of these new approaches depart from the traditional methods used in media research in significant ways As we move towards new ways of understanding digital journalism the methods developed for such purposes also need to be grounded in scientific rigour This book aims to share some of the emerging processes by which these methods tools and approaches are designed implemented and validated As such this book not only constitutes a benchmark for thinking about research methods in digital journalism it also provides an entry point for graduate students and seasoned scholars aiming to do research on digital journalism This book was originally published as a special issue of Digital Journalism Questions and answers for job interview Offshore Oil & Gas Rigs Petrogav

Improving household consumption and expenditure surveys' food consumption metrics Fiedler, John L.,Mwangi, Dena M.,2016-11-18 As the nature of global malnutrition changes there is a growing need and increasing urgency for more and better information about food consumption and dietary patterns The past two decades have seen a dramatic increase in the number availability and analysis of the food consumption data collected in a variety of multipurpose household surveys referred to collectively as household consumption and expenditure surveys HCESs These surveys are heterogeneous and their quality varies substantially by country. Still, they share some common shortcomings in their measurement of food consumption, nutrient intakes, and nutrition status that undermine their relevance and reliability for purposes of designing and implementing food policies and programs. This review crafts a strategic approach to the unfinished global agenda of improving HCESs' collection of food consumption data. Starting with the priority studies recommended by a 100-country HCES review (Smith, Dupriez, and Troubat 2014), it focuses on a strategic subset of those studies that deal most directly and exclusively with the measurement of food and that are of fundamental importance to all HCES stakeholders in low and middle income countries. Drawing from the literature, this study provides a more detailed, more circumspect justification as to why these particular studies are needed while identifying key hypotheses explaining why these studies are of growing urgency and demonstrating why now is a propitious time for undertaking them. The review also identifies important study design considerations while pointing out potential challenges to successful implementation stemming from technical capacity, economic, administrative, and political considerations. Six key studies are rank ordered from a global perspective as follows, taking into account: 1) the likely shared consensus that a topic is an important source of measurement error in estimating consumption; 2) the perceived urgency of the need for addressing a particular source of measurement error; 3) the perceived likelihood of success, that is, that the efforts will improve the accuracy of measurement; 4) whether or not the study entails modifying the questionnaire; 5) the ease with which a study may begin; and 6) the extent to which the study is independent of necessary negotiations with existing HCES stakeholders because of the types of changes it is likely to entail in either the questionnaire or the way the data have traditionally been processed.
