Pedagogies of Biomedical Science Donna Johnson, 2024-05-31 This book confronts the continually evolving nature of biomedical science education by providing a robust account of learning pedagogies and best practice for scholars and researchers in the field Rather than considering subdisciplines of biomedical science education separately the volume takes a holistic approach and considers the complexities of teaching biomedical science as a whole providing a nuanced overview of how a particular practice fits in such a course overall as well as providing support for development within the reader's own subdiscipline Ultimately this holistic approach allows for expansive discussion of relevant pedagogical approaches that will directly inform innovations in the contemporary teaching of biomedical science education Novel in approach and underpinned by the latest in research innovations this book will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of medical education higher education and curriculum studies Policy makers involved with health education and promotion as well as educational research will also benefit from the volume Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam, Mark C. Thompson, 2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike
