Academic Development and its Practitioners Gert Young,2022-03-03 The chapters in this collection are reflections of the intellectual emotional and day to day experiences of professional staff engaged in academic development They provide the reader with glimpses of how academic developers at one South African university are continuously shaping their identities through sense making processes how they creatively apply different theoretical approaches to both analysing and informing their work and what their views are of the practical and systemic challenges facing higher education As such this book expands on as well as challenges the dominant ways of thinking about academic development and academic developers in higher education

Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn,2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties

Governance and Management in Higher Education Enakshi

Sengupta,Patrick Blessinger,Nasiruddin Nezaami,2022-04-26 Autonomy in governance and management in education has become the prerogative of higher education institutions whilst optimum allocation and use of resources have become the aim of all higher education institutions This volume explores the creation of knowledge and its dissemination in a way that creates a significant impact in society

The Future of Accessibility in International Higher Education Alphin Jr., Henry C.,Chan, Roy Y.,Lavine, Jennie,2017-05-17 Education is the foundation to almost all successful lives and it is important that a high level of schooling be available on a global scale Studying the trends in accessibility in education will allow educators to improve their own teaching techniques as well as expand their influence to more remote areas in the world The Future of Accessibility in International Higher Education is a comprehensive reference source for the latest scholarly material on emerging methods and trends in disseminating knowledge in university settings Featuring extensive coverage on relevant topics such as e learning economic perspectives and educational technology this publication is ideally designed for educators academics students and researchers interested in expanding their knowledge of global education Morgan Richard Tsvangirai's Legacy Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2022-03-11 Morgan Richard Tsvangirai is arguably the most polarising figure and advocate of democracy and human rights in the history of opposition politics in Zimbabwe He is as much a topic of debate in Zimbabwe and beyond as the late president Robert Gabriel Mugabe Tsvangirai's legacy like Mugabe's remains indisputably controversial and conflicted Broadly the divided opinion on the Tsvangirai legacy can be represented firstly by those who argue that Tsvangirai was the champion of democracy and the face of the struggle for human rights in Zimbabwe In this light Tsvangirai has been variously described as a selfless people's hero a colossus of the struggle for democracy the commander of the struggle a symbol of courage and resistance and the doyen of constitutionalism in Zimbabwe On the other hand critics have described Tsvangirai as a sell out a Judas Iscariot traitor and coward among other nefarious and pejorative characterisations Drawing on all these opinions and the various characterisations of Tsvangirai this book provides a comprehensive and multi disciplinary appraisal of a gigantic trade unionist and political figure who in his life and in death inspires different narratives emotions and values This book is therefore about a mortal but living figure who left an indelible mark on Zimbabwe Africa and the rest of the world in fields such as trade unionism governance and politics As such the book is handy for students and practitioners in African studies political science policy studies economics history global studies and development studies Engaging Youth in Activism, Research and Pedagogical Praxis Tamara Shefer, Jeff Hearn, Kopano Ratele, Floretta Boonzaier, 2018-06-14 Engaging Youth in Activism Research and Pedagogical Praxis Transnational and Intersectional Perspectives on Gender Sex and Race offers critical perspectives on contemporary research and practice directed at young people across the global north and south Drawing upon pedagogical programmatic and activist work with respect to challenging inequalities and injustices for young people the authors interrogate the dominant discourses of sexuality gender race class age and other social categories Emerging out of a Finnish South African collaboration this volume does not take a comparative approach but rather a transnational one by embracing the intersections of local and global knowledges We draw on this transnational and transdisciplinary framework and these various contexts to generate a critique of mainstream theory and pedagogical practice as well as to subvert and disrupt such research and practice so as to speak more directly to young people's agentic and activist engagements in social justice specifically inequalities of class race gender age sexuality ability and health Women's Empowerment for a Sustainable Future Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, Orna Braun-Lewensohn, Gila Chen, Kiyoko Sueda, Brightness Mangoloth, Saba Safdar, Soyeon Kim, 2023-07-08 This edited volume focuses on women's empowerment for a sustainable future It takes cultural and transcultural and positive psychology perspectives into consideration and explores the topic of women's empowerment from diverse stances across social strata cultural divides as well as economic and political divisions It addresses the critique of the overly Western focus of positive psychology on this topic by adopting a transnational and transcultural lens and by taking non WEIRD Western Educated Industrialized Rich Democratic samples into in depth consideration The chapters therefore focus on women from diverse socio cultural political socio economic backgrounds and discuss their ways of empowering others and being empowered They also discuss related positive psychology constructs such as coping resilience transformation growth leadership creativity identity development sustainable action as well as positive socio economic political and eco sustainable thought and action The volume as a whole looks at women's leadership as a factor of empowerment A further fundamental assumption is that women's empowerment is needed to create a sustainable future at micro meso and macro levels which presumes safety peace ecological considerations and compassionate leadership

Post-Sustainability and Environmental Education Bob Jickling, Stephen Sterling, 2017-03-17 This book provides a critique of over two decades of sustained effort to infuse educational systems with education for sustainable development Taking to heart the idea that deconstruction is a prelude to reconstruction this critique leads to discussions about how education can be remade and respond to the educational imperatives of our time particularly as they relate to ecological crises and human nature relationships It will be of great interest to students and researchers of sociology education philosophy and environmental issues
