The Creation, Diffusion, and Reception of Italian Art in the Early Modern Iberian World Corinna Tania Gallori, Benito Navarrete Prieto, 2025-05-30 This edited volume addresses the circulation of works of art images and ideas between the Iberian and Italian world and the subsequent responses this motion generated Amongst the themes discussed are the concepts of centre and periphery replicas and alterations and how items and ideas were reinterpreted The processes of appropriation and transformation create an artistic geography of identities in which originality can be studied through the processes of assimilation of images shared between Europe Asia and America Chapters challenge the negative conceptualization of copying arguing that the copy is not simply a derivation but a new creation that is shaped by the interests and preferences of the receiver Similarly contributors argue for a more nuanced concept of what exactly an artistic centre is The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Renaissance studies and Iberian studies The New World in Early Modern Italy, 1492-1750 Elizabeth Horodowich, Lia Markey, 2017-11-16 Italians became fascinated by the New World in the early modern period While Atlantic World scholarship has traditionally tended to focus on the acts of conquest and the politics of colonialism these essays consider the reception of ideas images and goods from the Americas in the non colonial states of Italy Italians began to venerate images of the Peruvian Virgin of Copacabana plant tomatoes potatoes and maize and publish costume books showcasing the clothing of the kings and queens of Florida revealing the powerful hold that the Americas had on the Italian imagination By considering a variety of cases illuminating the presence of the Americas in Italy this volume demonstrates how early modern Italian culture developed as much from multicultural contact with Mexico Peru Brazil and the Caribbean as it did from the rediscovery of classical antiquity Notes of Travel and Study in Italy Charles Eliot Norton, 1860 Early Canadian Gardening Eileen Woodhead, 1998-08-31 Reproducing a rare 1827 plant and seed catalogue possibly the earliest extant catalogue of its kind in Canada Early Canadian Gardening presents an extensive range of garden plants trees shrubs fruits and flowers that were grown for food medicines and dyestuffs as well as ornamental purposes Eileen Woodhead provides a detailed description and brief history of the cultivation and use of each plant up to the present day Most of the descriptions are accompanied by detailed drawings by the author who found and grew many of the original varieties in the catalogue The book provides a valuable account of the business of horticulture in the first decades of the nineteenth century the practices of importers merchants farms and households placing it within the broader context of social history It includes an appendix of historic sites and botanical gardens in Ontario as well as sources for heritage seeds Early Canadian Gardening is a ground breaking account of the practice and significance of horticulture during the period of settlement in Upper Canada and stands as a remarkable work of historical botany It will be an invaluable source document for horticulturists and botanists historians and garden enthusiasts with an interest in heritage plants The World's Progress: a Dictionary of Dates.
