Dayton, David Fraser, 1990-10-01 Planning strategies for world evangelization Edward R. ; Fraser Dayton (David A.), 1990 World Mission Scott N. Callaham, Will Brooks, 2019-06-12 World missions needs a fully biblical ethos This is the contention of the editors of and contributors to World Mission a series of essays aimed at reforming popular approaches to missions In the first set of essays contributors develop a biblical theology of world missions from both the Old and New Testaments arguing that the theology of each must stand in the foreground of missions not recede into the background In the second they unfold the Great Commission in sequence detailing how it determines the biblical strategy of all mission enterprises Finally they treat current issues in world missions from the perspective of the sufficiency of Scripture Altogether this book aims to reform missions to be thoroughly not just foundationally biblical a needed correction even among the sincerest missionaries Between Past and Future Evangelical Missiological Society, 2003 This volume traces its origins to the 2001 annual meeting of the Evangelical Missiological Society with the theme of Lessons in Mission from the Twentieth Century The papers from this meeting combined with insightful essays by other EMS members reflect upon the history of evangelical missions and upon its future Contributors Dwight P Baker Jonathan J Bonk Luis Bush Bruce K Camp Charles L Chaney Michael Jaffarian Todd M Johnson Gary B McGee John Moldovan Paul E Pierson John Mark Terry Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias, 2001-01-22 In Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias proposes that the time has come to recover in its fullness the biblical perspective of the kingdom for the mission of the church today and particularly for our evangelistic witness Exploring Church Growth Wilbert R. Shenk, 2010-08-01 During the past twenty years the phenomenon of church growth especially as it has been known under the dynamic leadership of Donald McGavran and the School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary has resulted in an impressive array of books articles reports and theses While freely acknowledging their debut to the church growth school the contributors to this volume wish to explore further the premises principles and goals of church growth. Firmly convinced that church growth is more than empirical data and effective methods and that there is nothing approaching a complete book of church growth they aim not simply to offer definitive answers but rather to open up fresh lines of inquiry historical experiential methodological and theological. Thus while interacting with previous studies the authors view their work as a constructive contribution to the search for a more adequate understanding of church growth patterns. Contributors to this volume include Alfred C. Krass, Harvie M. Conn, Orlando E. Costas, John H. Yoder, Harry R. Boer, and C. Ren Padilla.

Telling God's Stories with Power Paul F. Koehler, 2010-06-01 Biblical Storytelling in Oral Cultures This is a complete and practical introduction to storying especially for people who want to learn about using biblical storytelling in cross cultural contexts and who want to train others to become storytellers. It includes many fascinating accounts of the responses of tribal people to the first proclamation of the gospel through storytelling. The result of years of research and field testing Telling God's Stories with Power is a product of the author's own journey as he confronted the challenges of teaching the Bible in parts of the world where people are unaccustomed to a Western style of learning. Full of innovative and groundbreaking insights this study is packed with ideas explanations and constructive suggestions stated in clear and simple language. Throughout the book there are extensive examples from the storytellers own experiences. Tracing the movement of the biblical stories across multiple generations of tellers and listeners storytelling is found to be superior for knowledge transfer and for bypassing resistance to the gospel in oral contexts thus presenting clear evidence of the effectiveness of biblical narrative among oral learners.
