The son of a soap maker, Franklin left school at 10 years of age to help his father in the family business. By the time he had reached adulthood, his scientific discoveries, his brilliant mind, and his social gifts had earned him a high place of respect. However, it was Franklin's deep love for his native land and his devotion to individual freedom that sustained him during the long, violent years of the American Revolution. Franklin was a true American patriot. — The Complete Guide to
