

VOYAGER

THE JOURNAL OF THE VOYAGER SOCIETY OF AMERICA

7th Edition

The Voyager Society of America is a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation and promotion of the Voyager program. The society was founded in 1977 by a group of enthusiasts who were passionate about the Voyager spacecraft and the mission to explore the outer planets of our solar system. The society's primary goal is to ensure that the legacy of the Voyager program is preserved for future generations. This includes maintaining a comprehensive archive of all Voyager-related materials, including photographs, documents, and audio recordings. The society also organizes regular meetings and events for members to share their knowledge and passion for the program. Additionally, the society works to educate the public about the Voyager program and the importance of space exploration. Through its efforts, the Voyager Society of America has become a leading organization in the field of space exploration history.
