culinary ingredient from ancient India and Persia to today's explosive new market Cannabis the hottest new global food trend has been providing humans with nutrition medicine and solace against all odds since the earliest cavepeople discovered its powers In colorful detail the book explores the debate over the cannabis plant's taxonomy and nomenclature then follows as it co-evolves with humans throughout history beloved by the masses reviled by the elite and shrouded in conflict and secrecy The story is held together by the thread of the Islamic confection majoun created to manipulate a band of twelfth century fedayeen a legend that later inspired Western intellectuals and literati to discover and enjoy hashish and majoun It's the story of how a U.S. drug czar got cannabis prohibited around the world and how some cultures worked around that It's the story of how a recipe for majoun made its way into the hands of Alice B. Toklas an expat in Paris and then into the pages of a cookbook published in New York and London leading to a major mix-up in a major motion picture that morphed majoun into the pot brownie and turned the pot brownie into a Western icon forevermore From the rowdy band of artists rebels and intellectuals who partook of majoun's charms and to an activist who made the pot brownie a symbol of compassion it's the story of how cannabis cookery and hash eating survived through decades of global prohibition and the birth of a skies the limit cannabis infused food industry Along the way Robyn Griggs Lawrence explores the medicinal qualities of cannabis and its resurgence as a both a recreational drug and a respite from various illnesses and ailments With recipes and stories throughout this work is sure to entertain and inform readers about the history of cannabis as an edible ingredient in a variety of foods truth about marijuana No substance on earth is as hotly debated as marijuana Opponents claim it s dangerous addictive carcinogenic and a gateway to serious drug abuse Fans claim it as a wonder drug treating cancer anorexia AIDS chronic pain glaucoma arthritis migraines PTSD and insomnia Patients suffering from these conditions need and deserve hard facts based on medical evidence not hysteria and superstition In Stoned palliative care physician Dr David Casarett sets out to do anything including experimenting on himself to find evidence of marijuana s medical potential He smears mysterious marijuana paste on his legs and samples pot wine He poses as a patient at a seedy California clinic and takes lessons from an artisanal hash maker In conversations with researchers doctors and patients around the world he learns how marijuana works and doesn't in the real world Dr Casarett unearths tales of near miraculous success such as a child with chronic seizures who finally found relief in cannabidiol oil In Tel Aviv he learns of a nursing home that's found success giving marijuana to dementia patients On the other hand one patient who believed marijuana cured her lung cancer has clearly been misled As Casarett sifts the myth and misinformation from the scientific evidence he explains among other things Why marijuana might be the best treatment option for some types of pain Why there's no significant risk of lung damage from smoking pot Why most marijuana infused beer or wine won't get you high Often humorous occasionally heartbreaking and full of counterintuitive conclusions Stoned offers a compassionate and much needed medical practitioner's perspective on the potential of this misunderstood plant
