Potchefstroom University Application Forms 2016:

Community Engagement in Higher Education Manju Singh, Purva Bhatt, Wafa Singh, Kumar Sambhav Pareek, 2023-06-19

This book explores the finer nuances of community engagement in Indian higher education ranging from theory to practice. It contextualizes the concept and practice of community engagement in the contemporary context capturing global experiences, insights, and varied standpoints. The volume also identifies gaps present in the system and recommends solutions for the successful implementation and scaling up of the practice of community engagement not only in India but also at the global level. It also brings to the forefront opinions, perspectives, and experiences of stellar women and their valuable scholarship with the aim of addressing the gender gap in the field of knowledge production on community engagement. The book will be of interest to scholars, teachers, and researchers of education, higher education, and sociology of education. It will also be useful for academicians, think tanks, higher education administration, policymakers, civil society organizations, higher education institutions, and those interested in the study of community engagement.

A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands Rodney Moffett, 2021-04-19. This bibliography includes scientific articles on the Drakensberg, Maloti, and Adjacent Lowlands published between 1808 and 2019. Although focussing on material appearing in accredited journals, there is such a wealth of information in the form of unpublished yet traceable reports, documents, presentations, and dissertations; these are also included. The bibliography has two parts: a complete list arranged alphabetically and the same references arranged in 33 different disciplines. These range from Palaeobotany with 17 entries to Rock Art with 502 entries.

Exploring decolonising themes in SA sport history Francois Johannes Cleophas, 2018-01-01. In an effort to understand how the absences of the colonial subject in sport were engineered and how colonial narratives became fixed in the literature and minds of South Africans, Exploring Decolonising Themes in SA Sport History: Issues and Challenges attempts a full-scale restructuring and rewriting of the history of sport in South Africa to include black South Africans and thereby places them on the forefront of a colonial history. The book includes the articulations of academic researchers, professionals, and retired sportspeople who were requested to explore their unique areas of interest in sport from the perspective of themes in South African sport history. They place themselves at the centre of discourses that dispel myths that blacks had no sport significance prior to 1994. The book ultimately challenges this spirit of the past where there was only one narrative: a white male sport tradition. Rather than adapting past colonial and apartheid narratives, this work seeks to fundamentally replace and supersede them Teacher Preparation in South Africa Linda Chisholm,2019-10-09 The book will focus on the emergence of a racially divided system of teacher preparation and its dismantling post apartheid It will explore the policies and politics of discrepant pathways to teacher preparation within the context of international and comparative trends

Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens,Nerina Bosman,2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics

Asymmetry, Multinationalism and Constitutional Law Maja Sahadžić,2020-09-02 This book examines the link between constitutional asymmetry and multinationalism and the effects asymmetry produces on legitimacy and stability in federal and quasi federal systems This is done through a structured and exhaustive comparative analysis covering states in Africa America Asia and Europe Contrary to traditional federal theory contemporary scholars have linked constitutional asymmetry with multinational federal systems by presenting asymmetry as a mechanism for diversity management This book offers insights on whether and how constitutional asymmetry is linked with multinationalism and looks into the socio economic cultural ideological historical and separatist factors that support the emergence of asymmetries The work also provides a legal analysis of whether constitutional asymmetry is a condition or a threat to legitimacy and stability in federal systems The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers in law and political science interested in the fields of constitutional law federal theory multinationalism and minorities

Jesus Christ as Ancestor Reuben Turbi Luka,2019-08-31 In this critical study Dr Turbi Luka uses historical theological methodology to engage in detail with Christologies of key African theologians and conventional theological sources for Christology including the church fathers Tertullian and Athanasius as well as modern theologians Turbi argues that existing African Christologies specifically ancestor Christologies are inadequate in expressing the person of Christ as Messiah and saviour the fulfilment of Old Testament prophecies Providing a new approach Turbi proposes an African Linguistic Affinity Christology that explicitly portrays Jesus as Christ in a contextually relevant way for Africans in everyday life This crucial study highlights the need for biblically rooted Christology and for sound theological understanding and naming of Jesus at every level This book also warns the church in Africa and elsewhere to avoid repeating the dangerous christological heresies of the ancient church by remaining faithful to a biblical interpretation and orthodox theology of Christ

Economic Shocks and Globalisation Elsabé Loots,2024-08-01 Over the 153 year period since 1870 the phenomenon of globalisation has been shaped and reshaped As we look back at the events that shaped our understanding of the process and its momentum before and after the Global Financial Crisis GFC it became clear that the process of globalisation has changed and continues to evolve which requires a deeper analysis The book answers the question of why the performance of the hyper globalisation period has not continued during the post GFC period after 2010 and what might be expected going forward Apart from the fact that the fourth globalisation wave period between 2010 to the early 2020s has been characterised by a range of global shocks that caused more volatility instability and uncertainty the major economic determinants of globalisation have also slowed markedly The outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic followed by the geopolitical uncertainty and instability all caused global contagion effects around the world with economic socio economic and geopolitical consequences and responses This book aims to analyse most of these global events and shocks and attempted to gather a deeper understanding of the present drivers of globalisation and what the major trends and shifts are geo economically socio economically and geopolitically The conclusions drawn include that globalisation remains despite the current slowbalisation an integrated process that is globally entrenched yet complex cyclical multifaceted and multiplex This book is aimed at academics in economics political sciences social sciences and may also find an audience among international policymakers and scholars at multilateral institutions such as the World Bank and the United Nations

The Future of Higher Education in the Middle East and Africa Habib M. Fardoun, Kevin J. Downing, Mandy Mok, 2018-03-26 This book addresses some of the challenges posed by the globalization of higher education It examines the emergence and resulting challenges of English as Lingua Franca ELF and of the decision to use English as the Medium of Instruction EMI as part of a strategic policy of internationalization It looks at survival challenges caused by globalization and expansion the diversity challenge the concept of marginality and how marginality can lead to creativity teaching and encouraging entrepreneurialism the tools needed for internationalizing higher education in developing countries innovative approaches the intelligent use of technology and finally the value of non constraint engagement in driving teaching and course quality improvements The expansion of higher education and the increasingly international body of students and staff continue to inspire and drive the development of global higher education systems Whilst these systems began locally many are now engaging with the challenges of retaining their local flavour whilst embracing the march of globalisation The challenge is to find local solutions that also meet the requirements of the rapid development of what might be termed the massification of international higher education This book reflects these contemporary challenges through its variety of topics taken from countries as diverse as Hong Kong Panama South Africa USA and Saudi Arabia The topics are as diverse as some of the local solutions but each chapter represents a response to a rapidly changing global landscape

Ethnic Diversity, Plural Democracy and Human Dignity Mario Krešić, Damir Banović, Alberto Carrio Sampedro, Jānis Pleps, 2022-04-25 Given their ethnic diversity to what extent and at what cost and benefit to human dignity can European countries adopt and adapt plural democracy The contributors to this volume offer answers to this question from a variety of multidisciplinary perspectives within the framework of the integral theory of law and the state. Their shared aim is to explain legal phenomena in the context of other relevant issues and to identify, analyse and critique conceptualizations, problems and situations. This volume is rooted in the historical and contemporary European experience with special cases from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Latvia, Slovenia, Spain and Canada which are relevant for understanding the European problem. Solutions to the problem are sought through innovative interpretations of the rule of law, democracy and human dignity which are followed by argumentation about how these concepts when recognized as European legal principles can be implemented in order to avoid ethnic conflicts. Following an introduction that defines the problem at the centre of the book and explains how legal theory can be used to address it, the book consists of eleven contributions divided into three thematic sections. The first covers topics concerning the European principles which can help avoid ethnic conflicts: the principle of compulsory adjudication in interstate relations, the principle of democracy and principles regarding the recognition of individual and collective identities. These European principles are then investigated by drawing on legal and political theories. The second section presents three ways of conceptualizing ethnic needs in multi-ethnic states: asymmetric federalism, democratic account and cooperative federalism. The third and final section elaborates on issues concerning the protection of minority rights: the role of judicial ideology in protecting minority rights, citizenship, the EU mechanism for the protection of minority rights and the importance of remembering tragic events affecting minorities.

Theory, Research and Dynamics of Career Wellbeing Ingrid L. Potgieter, Nadia Ferreira, Melinde Coetzee, 2019-09-18. This volume offers a new conceptualization of career wellbeing by viewing the construct as an individual's long-term contentment with their career outcomes, career achievements, career changes and their sustainable employability amidst the complexities of the contemporary and emerging future digital-driven work environment. In support of this view of career wellbeing, the volume constructs theoretical frameworks for future-fit career wellbeing in the digital-driven work-life context. The chapters juxtaposition current research trends in terms of future potential directions for research on career wellbeing in Industry 4.0. The volume also critically evaluates the relevance, applicability and utility of the research findings and theoretical premises in various current versus potential Industry 4.0 settings for individuals across the life span. It offers valuable suggestions for practice and interventions.

Nematology in South Africa: A View from the 21st Century Hendrika Fourie, Vaughan W. Spaull, Robin K. Jones, Mieke S. Daneel, Dirk De Waele, 2017-02-28. This unique book contains not only a comprehensive up-to-date summary of the achievements made in all areas of Nematology in South Africa over more than half a century but it also combines this rather technical part with an insiders' narrative of how Nematology started and developed. It also demonstrates how the South African community of nematologists gradually adapted to major changes in agriculture. These were due to a major political shift followed by socio-economic changes and this in an often challenging natural environment. At the same time, this book is conceived as a useful source for young scientists to provide them with practical knowledge and critical insight in the field of Nematology The information given is based primarily on research conducted by nematologists in South Africa Most of this research was aimed at finding workable solutions for nematological problems confronted by both large scale commercial producers and smallholding farmers During a period when funding for scientific research is becoming increasingly scarce the future demand and quest for practical solutions by applied research will only increase
