Pour Un Nouveau Droit International De La Concurrence:

Pour un nouveau droit international de la concurrence Ali Cenk Keskin, 2010-01-01 La mondialisation des changes constitue un défi pour les politiques de la concurrence encore fondées sur l'Etat nation. En dissociant le territoire où elles sont décidées de l'espace géographique où elles produisent leurs effets, elles rendent l'adaptation des instruments internes de contrôle compliquent les stratégies commerciales des entreprises. La possibilité de négocier un accord international sur le droit de la concurrence dans un cadre plurilatéral dont l'OMC serait le principal cadre institutionnel est vaine. Nouveau droit international public suivant les besoins de la civilisation moderne par Pasquale Fiore Pasquale Fiore, 1885

Recueil Des Cours Académie de Droit International, 1998-06-03 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains Souveraineté territoriale et globalisation des marchés: le domaine d'application des lois contre les restrictions de la concurrence par J. BASEDOW, professeur à l'Université libre de Berlin. The number of national laws that protect competition against private restrictions are constantly increasing. Their application to transboundary situations poses difficult problems for both private international law and public international law. The course deals with both either with respect to application of the lex fori or with respect to application of foreign laws. Enforcement in the International Context by K. D. KERAMEUS, Professor at the University of Athens. In recent years enforcement proceedings have gone through a comprehensive reform in many countries. Furthermore, modern enforcement increasingly relies on foreign judgments. The course focuses on three subjects: the comparative element in recent codifications and case law developments in the area of enforcement; salient and converging trends in the enforcement of foreign judgments on the basis of domestic law or international conventions; and the delimitation of lex fori and foreign law during the enforcement proceedings. Droz - on the Progressive Unification of Private International Law Georges Droz, Alegría Borrás, Andreas Bucher, Michel Verwilghen, Teun Struycken, 1996-06-07 The unification of Private International Law is a goal to which all the contributors to this impressive volume have committed themselves and one which seems increasingly to attract the attention of legal practitioners, researchers, writers and legislators. The essays give a unique overview of the current state of the law with respect to those areas which have been unified or which are susceptible to unification. Insights are given into national as well as international practice and theoretical aspects have not been neglected. Acte Illicite Et L'enrichissement Illégitime Dans Le Nouveau Droit International Privé Suisse Anne-Catherine Imhoff-Scheier, Paolo Michele Patocchi, 1990 the Boundaries of European Private International Law Jean-Sylvestre Bergé, Stéphanie Francq, Miguel Gardenes Santiago, 2015-04-22 European private international law is by now based mainly on a large body of uniform rules such as the Regulations Rome I Rome II Brussels I Brussels I bis This significant legislative output however does not take place in a vacuum Rules of private international law have been earlier and still are adopted at national international and even European level in scattered regulations and directives The recent plethora of private international law rules gives rise to issues of delineation and calls for some sort of ordering as gaps overlaps and contradictions become flagrant At the same time the resulting interactions can offer new insight ideas and even opportunities at a more theoretical level This book gathers a collection of essays resulting out of a series of international seminars held in Lyon Barcelona and Louvain la Neuve During those seminars young researchers selected in an open call for papers had the opportunity to discuss their views among themselves as well as with various specialists of the field such as more senior academics EU civil servants national experts and representatives of other international organisations The book offers the fresh views of those who will in the future shape the dialectic between the various sources of private international law and attempts to launch a discussion on the living together of legal sources Two ranges of topics are addressed in the book firstly the relationship between EU private international law and national law substantial and procedural and or international law international instruments of private international law or of uniform substantive law and secondly the relationship between EU private international law and other aspects of EU law internal market rules of primary law harmonisation through secondary law and other pieces of legislation enacted in the realm of the area of freedom security and justice

The Interplay between European and National Competition Law after Regulation 1/2003 Lúcio Tomé Feteira, 2015-12-08 If we can speak of the European Community's economic constitution we can assert that competition rules together with free movement rules form its core Notably implementation of the competition rules enshrined in Articles 81 and 82 EC changed radically with the enactment of Regulation 1/2003 which in effect dispensed with mandatory prior notifications and allowed national authorities to apply Article 101(3) TFEU directly Given that national legislations perceive certain types of unilateral conduct even if adopted by a non dominant undertaking as a potential source of anticompetitive effects an important question concerns the leeway enjoyed by national authorities under the exception to the convergence rule in Article 3(2) of Regulation 1/2003 and the consequent effect on both legal practice and policy issues In this lucidly argued book focusing on national competition provisions in Germany France Italy and the United Kingdom that deal with such conduct the author provides a detailed examination of how such considerations as the following are affected by Regulation 1 2003 prohibition of abuse of economic dependence or superior bargaining power the particular susceptibility of long term contracts prohibition of resale at a loss or below cost prohibition of boycott unlawful pressures threats and other coercive tactics adopted by undertakings and the role of unfair competition law The analysis follows a functional method of comparative legal analysis reviewing the most relevant norms in the selected jurisdictions particularly in what concerns their goals and function in the context of their respective legal systems Special attention is paid to two specific sectors the motor vehicle and the retailing industries which have most often triggered relevant legislation and case law in the jurisdictions covered Legal scholarship in the field is also drawn upon In its clarification of the meaning of Regulation 1 2003 this book allows practitioners to fully grasp its scope The author s thorough masterful analysis of the statutory framework of Article 3 of the regulation also reveals the variety of reasons why different Member States have different competition policies on the scope of the exception to the rule of convergence and in this way provides lawyers policymakers and academics with welcome insights on how major EU jurisdictions apply European competition law
