

Units of Study (Elementary)

Grade	Unit 1 About the Library	Unit 2 Social Justice	Unit 3 MAKER/STEAM	Unit 4 Informational Literacy
Kindergarten	Choose a book in the library using the library organization. Start to distinguish between fiction and nonfiction. Start to distinguish between author and illustrator. Understand the norms and values of the library.	Identity Recognize and describe elements of their identity. Express (draw or discuss) how the character in the story(ies) may be the same or different than self. Express what is beautiful about themselves.	K-LEAP See books as something fun and interesting and are connected to the life of the student. Start to appreciate that curiosity is a baseline to learning. Use play to create what happened in the story or in way they can enjoy. Partner with other students to play and learn how to cooperate. Start to understand that if something does not work out or they make a mistake that is okay, this is how we learn.	Locate information from print and online sources. Differentiate between information. Use the Inquiry DBS Collaborative Inquiry Model. Become Digital Literate.
First Grade	Find information in the library. Understand that libraries are an important part of a community. Find resources in the library that they are interested in.	Identity Recognize and describe elements of their identity. Express (draw or discuss) how the character in the story(ies) may be the same or different than myself. Express something I learned from a character that is different from me.	STEAM with Trickster Tales Start to understand different cultures have different ideas or perspectives on why things happen in the world. When we work in groups we all have a role to do to support the group. We can create something based on what we are reading or hearing.	Know different sources to locate information. Different sources can give you different types of information. Evaluating information is an important part of participating in a community. You can take information and create something new from it.
Second Grade	Locate and navigate the DBS library catalog independently by the end of the unit. Locate and assess good fit books for the purpose of reading for enjoyment and for informational research. Locate and assess good fit books for a variety of purposes.	Windows and Mirrors Synthesize the identity of characters in a story as they relate to themselves. Make text-to-self connections with my personal experiences and define elements of my identity that mirror the experience of the characters in the story. Make text-to-world connections with the experiences of others and define elements of the character's identity that provide a window into the experience of others.	STEAM with Folktales Practice how to collaborate take turns and share materials. Use creativity to solve a problem based on a folktale. Broaden and deepen understanding of content within learning groups. Recognize learning is a collaborative experience.	Locate a database for a purpose. Search a database with intention. Filter information to find what they need to reach a goal. Stay on task when searching for information.
