Keeping House Virginia K. Bartlett,1994-12-08 This book is a fascinating re creation of the lives of women in the time of great social change that followed the end of the French and Indian War in western Pennsylvania Many decades passed before a desolate and violent frontier was transformed into a stable region of farms and towns Keeping House Women s Lives in Western Pennsylvania 1790 1850 tells how the daughters wives and mothers who crossed the Allegheny Mountains responded and adapted to unaccustomed physical and psychological hardships as they established lives for themselves and their families in their new homes Intrigued by late eighteenth and early nineteenth century manuscript cookbooks in the collection of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania Virginia Bartlett wanted to find out more about women living in the region during that period Quoting from journals letters cookbooks travelers accounts approving and critical memoirs documents and newspapers she offers us voices of women and men commenting seriously and humorously on what was going on around them The text is well illustrated with contemporaneous art engravings apaintings drawings and cartoons Of special interest are color and black and white photographs of furnishings housewares clothing and portraits from the collections of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania This is not a sentimental account Bartlett makes clear how little say women had about their lives and how little protection they could expect from the law especially on matters relating to property Their world was one of marked contrasts life in a log cabin with bare necessities and elegant dinners in the homes of Pittsburgh's military and entrepreneurial elite rural women in homespun and affluent Pittsburgh ladies in imported fashions When the book begins families are living in fear of Indian attacks as it ends the word shawling has come into use as the polite term for pregnancy referring to women's attempt to hide their condition with cleverly draped shawls The menacing frontier has given way to American style gentility An introduction by Jack D Warren University of Virginia sets the scene with a discussion of the early peopling of the region and places the book within the context of women's studies California Cultivator ,1916 Food Network Magazine The Recipe-A-Day Kids Cookbook Food Network Magazine,2022-04-05 A recipe a day keeps the boredom away in this kids cookbook full of fun activities and 365 sweet and savory treats from the Food Network Kitchen Make every day special with an easy and exciting recipe whether it's the first day of school a big birthday or just a lazy Sunday Kids will flip through this book to find a great idea for every day of the year starting today including 365 sweet and savory recipes and photos one for every day of the year Holiday cookies and gifts like doughnut snowmen Easy food crafts some use ready made shortcut ingredients Fake out snacks ice cream sandwiches that look like mini burgers Cupcake decorating flower cupcakes made with snipped marshmallows for petals Cute bites for April Fool's Day Earth Day and leapfrog cookies for Leap Year Fun food trivia throughout It makes an excellent boredom buster and summer activity book for kids and families or a perfect gift for kids who love to cook What's your birthday Anyone who picks up this book will turn straight to that date to see which treat falls on their special day Perhaps it's the miniature chicken and waffles or homemade chocolate lollipops or even a giant pretzel Of course all the big holidays are represented too like flag tarts for the Fourth of July or banana mummies for Halloween And we never miss an excuse to celebrate historic events You can make star cookies on the day Pluto was discovered An easy cookbook for beginners all the recipes and food crafts were tested in the Food Network Kitchen so they're sure to come out perfect every time Agriculture Handbook ,2004 The Foxfire Book Foxfire Fund, Inc.,1972-02-17 First published in 1972 The Foxfire Book was a surprise bestseller that brought Appalachia's philosophy of simple living to hundreds of thousands of readers Whether you wanted to hunt game bake the old fashioned way or learn the art of successful moonshining The Foxfire Museum and Heritage Center had a contact who could teach you how with clear step by step instructions This classic debut volume of the acclaimed series covers a diverse array of crafts and practical skills including log cabin building hog dressing basketmaking cooking fencemaking crop planting hunting and moonshining as well as a look at the history of local traditions like snake lore and faith healing Hospitals ,1960
