

The artwork features a dramatic scene with several characters. In the upper left, a large, pale, bearded face of a deity or immortal looms in the background. In the center, a man in a green robe with a yellow sash and a white beard looks forward. To his right, another man with a beard and a crown-like headpiece looks down. In the foreground, a man with a stern expression and a blue and white robe looks directly at the viewer. To the left of the central figure, a woman in a red and white robe looks towards the right. The background is a dark, stormy sky with lightning bolts. The title "Romance of the Three Kingdoms XIV" is written in a stylized, golden font with a black outline, positioned at the bottom of the image.

Brotherhood In The Peach Garden One Victory Shatters The Rebels In Battlegrounds Domains under heaven after a long period of division tends to unite after a long period of union tends to divide This has been so since antiquity When the rule of the Zhou Dynasty weakened seven contending kingdoms sprang up warring one with another until the kingdom of Qin prevailed and possessed the empire But when Qin s destiny had been fulfilled arose two opposing kingdoms Chu and Han to fight for the mastery And Han was the victor The rise of the fortunes of Han began when Liu Bang the Supreme Ancestor slew a white serpent to raise the banners of uprising which only ended when the whole empire belonged to Han BC 202 This magnificent heritage was handed down in successive Han emperors for two hundred years till the rebellion of Wang Mang caused a disruption But soon Liu Xiu the Latter Han Founder restored the empire and Han emperors continued their rule for another two hundred years till the days of Emperor Xian which were doomed to see the beginning of the empire s division into three parts known to history as The Three Kingdoms But the descent into misrule hastened in the reigns of the two predecessors of Emperor Xian Emperors Huan and Ling who sat in the Dragon Throne about the middle of the second century Emperor Huan paid no heed to the good people of his court but gave his confidence to the Palace eunuchs He lived and died leaving the scepter to Emperor Ling whose advisers were Regent Marshal Dou Wu and Imperial Guardian Chen Fan Dou Wu and Chen Fan disgusted with the abuses of the eunuchs in the affairs of the state plotted the destruction for the power abusing eunuchs But Chief Eunuch Cao Jie was not to be disposed of easily The plot leaked out and the honest Dou Wu and Chen Fan were put to death leaving the eunuchs stronger than before It fell upon the day of full moon of the fourth month the second year in the era of Established Calm AD 169 that Emperor Ling went in state to the Hall of Virtue As he drew near the throne a rushing whirlwind arose in the corner of the hall and lo from the roof beams floated down a monstrous black serpent that coiled itself up on the very seat of majesty The Emperor fell in a swoon Those nearest him hastily raised and bore him to his palace while the courtiers scattered and fled The serpent disappeared But there followed a terrific tempest thunder hail and torrents of rain lasting till midnight and working havoc on all sides Two years later the earth quaked in Capital Luoyang while along the coast a huge tidal wave rushed in which in its recoil swept away all the dwellers by the sea Another evil omen was recorded ten years later when the reign title was changed to Radiant Harmony AD 179 certain hens suddenly crowed At the new moon of the sixth month a long wreath of murky cloud wound its way into the Hall of Virtue while in the following month a rainbow was seen in the Dragon Chamber Away from the capital a part of the Five Mountains collapsed leaving a mighty rift in the flank Such were some of various omens Emperor Ling greatly moved by these signs of the displeasure of Heaven issued an edict asking his ministers for an explanation of the calamities and marvels A court counselor Cai Yong replied bluntly Falling rainbows and changes of fowls sexes are brought about by the interference of empresses and eunuchs in state affairs The Emperor read this memorial with deep sighs and Chief Eunuch Cao Jie from his place behind the throne anxiously noted these signs of grief An opportunity offering Cao Jie informed his fellows and a charge was trumped up against Cai Yong who was driven from the court and forced to retire to his country house With this victory the eunuchs grew bolder Ten of them rivals in wickedness and associates in evil deeds formed a powerful party known as the Ten Regular Attendants Zhang Rang Zhao Zhong Cheng Kuang Duan Gui Feng Xu Guo Sheng Hou Lan Jian Shuo Cao Jie and Xia Yun One of them Zhang Rang won such influence that he became the Emperor's most honored and trusted adviser The Emperor even called him Foster Father So the corrupt state administration went quickly from bad to worse till the country was ripe for rebellion and buzzed with brigandage At this time in the county of Julu was a certain Zhang family of whom three brothers bore the name of Zhang Jue Zhang Bao and Zhang Liang respectively The eldest Zhang Jue was an unclassed graduate who devoted himself to medicine One day while culling simples in the woods Zhang Jue met a venerable old gentleman with very bright emerald eyes and fresh complexion who walked with an oak wood staff The old man beckoned Zhang Jue into a cave and there gave him three volumes of the Book of Heaven This book said the old gentleman is the Way of Peace With the aid of these volumes you can convert the world and rescue humankind But you must be single minded or rest assured you will greatly suffer With a humble obeisance Zhang Jue took the book and asked the name of his benefactor I am Saint Hermit of the Southern Land was the reply as the old gentleman disappeared in thin air Zhang Jue studied the wonderful book eagerly and strove day and night to reduce its precepts to practice Before long he could summon the winds and command the rain and he became known as the Mystic of the Way of Peace In the first month of the first year of Central Stability AD 184 there was a terrible pestilence that ran throughout the land whereupon Zhang Jue distributed charmed remedies to the afflicted The godly medicines brought big successes and soon he gained the title of the Wise and Worthy Master He began to have a following of disciples whom he initiated into the mysteries and sent abroad throughout all the land They like their master could write charms and recite formulas and their fame increased his following Zhang Jue began to organize his disciples He established thirty six circuits the larger with ten thousand or more members the smaller with about half that number Each circuit had its chief who took the military title of General They talked wildly of the death of the blue heaven and the setting up of the golden one they said a new cycle was beginning and would bring universal good fortune to all members and they persuaded people to chalk the symbols for the first year of the new cycle on the main door of their dwellings With the growth of the number of his supporters grew also the ambition of Zhang Jue The Wise and Worthy Master dreamed of empire One of his partisans Ma Yuanyi was sent bearing gifts to gain the support of the eunuchs within the Palace To his brothers Zhang Jue said For schemes like ours always the most difficult part is to gain the popular favor But that is already ours Such an opportunity must not pass And they began to prepare Many yellow flags and banners were made and a day was chosen for the uprising Then Zhang Jue wrote letters to Eunuch Feng Xu and sent them by one of his followers Tang Zhou who alas betrayed his trust and reported the plot to the court The Emperor summoned the trusty Regent Marshal He Jin and bade him look to the issue Ma Yuanyi was at once taken and beheaded Feng Xu and many others were cast into prison The plot having thus become known the Zhang brothers were forced at once to take the field They took up grandiose titles Zhang Jue the Lord of Heaven Zhang Bao the Lord of Earth and Zhang Liang the Lord of Human And in these names they put forth this manifesto The good fortune of the Han is exhausted and the Wise and Worthy Man has appeared Discern the will of Heaven O ye people and walk in the way of righteousness whereby alone ye may attain to peace Support was not lacking On every side people bound their heads with yellow scarves and joined the army of the rebel Zhang Jue so that soon his strength was nearly half a million strong and the official troops melted away at a whisper of his coming Regent Marshal and Guardian of the Throne He Jin memorialized for general preparations against the Yellow Scarves and an edict called upon every one to fight against the rebels In the meantime three Imperial Commanders Lu Zhi Huangfu Song and Zhu Jun marched against them in three directions with veteran soldiers Meanwhile Zhang Jue led his army into Youzhou the northeastern region of the empire The Imperial Protector of Youzhou was Liu Yan a scion of the Imperial House Learning of the approach of the rebels Liu Yan called in Commander Zhou Jing to consult over the position Zhou Jing said They are many and we few We must enlist more troops to oppose them Liu Yan agreed and he put out notices calling for volunteers to serve against the rebels One of these notices was posted up in the county of Zhuo where lived one man of high spirit This man was no mere bookish scholar nor found he any pleasure in study But he was liberal and amiable albeit a man of few words hiding all feeling under a calm exterior He had always cherished a yearning for high enterprise and had cultivated the friendship of humans of mark He was tall of stature His ears were long the lobes touching his shoulders and his hands hung down below his knees His eyes were very big and prominent so that he could see backward past his ears His complexion was as clear as jade and he had rich red lips He was a descendant of Prince Faubus of Zhongshan whose father was the Emperor Myers the occupant of the Dragon Throne a century and a half BC His name was Liu Bei Many years before one of his forbears had been the governor of that very county but had lost his rank for remissness in ceremonial offerings However that branch of the family had remained on in the place gradually becoming poorer and poorer as the years rolled on His father Liu Hong had been a scholar and a virtuous official but died young The widow and orphan were left alone and Liu Bei as a lad won a reputation for filial piety At this time the family had sunk deep in poverty and Liu Bei gained his living by selling straw sandals and weaving grass mats The family home was in a village near the chief city of Zhuo Near the house stood a huge mulberry tree and seen from afar its curved profile resembled the canopy of a wagon Noting the luxuriance of its foliage a soothsayer had predicted that one day a man of distinction would come forth from the family As a child Liu Bei played with the other village children beneath this tree and he would climb up into it saying I am the Son of Heaven and this is my chariot His uncle Liu Yuanqi recognized that Liu Bei was no ordinary boy and saw to it that the family did not come to actual want When Liu Bei was fifteen his mother sent him traveling for his education For a time he served Zheng Xuan and Lu Zhi as masters And he became great friends with Gongsun Zan Liu Bei was twenty eight when the outbreak of the Yellow Scarves called for soldiers The sight of the notice saddened him and he sighed as he read it Suddenly a rasping voice behind him cried Sir why sigh if you do nothing to help your country Turning quickly he saw standing there a man about his own height with a bullet head like a leopard s large eyes a swallow pointed chin and whiskers like a tiger s He spoke in a loud bass voice and looked as irresistible as a dashing horse At once Liu Bei saw he was no ordinary man and asked who he was Zhang Fei is my name replied the stranger I live near here where I have a farm and I am a wine seller and a butcher as well and I like to become acquainted with worthy humans Your sighs as you read the notice drew me toward you
