21 May 2017

Thank you very much President Hutchinson. I am overwhelmed with pride and am very thankful for this wonderful recognition. As I have become more and more dedicated to Chico State over the last 12 years, I never dreamed something like this honor would be given to me. Becoming a community volunteer to this wonderful university has been one of the highlights of my life. Even though this happened after I retired from my profession, it has kept me engaged in significant work that has the goal of helping to improve University Public Education in this state, right here in Chico, California. So many articles give advice to people like me going into retirement: move to a small town with a university, get involved in something meaningful, and do your best in using your experience and contacts to give something back. That's what I set out to do.

In the late 1990's, I realized, as did many of my colleagues, the need to attract young men and women into management positions in the Heavy Construction Materials business, particularly in the Concrete Industry, which was my career for almost 40 years. This large industry, rated the 6th largest growth industry in the US, includes Portland Cement, Aggregates, Equipment, Chemicals, Control
