English for Academic CVs, Resumes, and Online Profiles Adrian Wallwork, 2019-05-07. Are you a graduate, postgraduate, or PhD student? Building a CV or profile can be difficult for anyone, but especially for those whose first language is not English. This book is essential for those looking to promote themselves in the academic community and can be used both for self-study as well as in an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course. The book contains tips, do's and don'ts, and discussion points that can be used by instructors. Based on interviews with recruiters and an analysis of hundreds of CVs from around 40 different countries, the book is structured as a series of FAQs. Topics covered include how recruiters and HR people analyse a CV, whether using a template is a good idea, how to present your personal details, and whether to include a photo. How to write an Objective and a personal profile, what to write in each section: Education, Work Experience, Skills, Personal Interests, how to highlight your language communication and team skills, how to get and write references. The last chapter of the book contains a simple template to help you get the job of your dreams. Other books in this series include English for Writing Research Papers, English for Research Usage: Style and Grammar, English for Presentations at International Conferences, English for Academic Research Grammar Vocabulary Writing Exercises, English for Academic Correspondence, English for Interacting on Campus. Adrian Wallwork is the author of over 40 books aimed at helping non-native English speakers to communicate more effectively in English. He has published with Springer Nature, Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press, Scholastic BEP, and the BBC.

Public Speaking for Criminal Justice Professionals Thomas Mauriello, 2020-07-06. Public Speaking for Criminal Justice Professionals: A Manner of Speaking is a one-of-a-kind public speaking guide specifically written for criminal justice professionals, written by a criminal justice professional. Author Thomas Mauriello has worked his entire professional career both as a practitioner and as an educator in the fields of criminal justice and forensic science. This book outlines the public speaking skills he has learned, used, and taught to thousands of criminal justice, forensic science, security, and counterintelligence professionals over the years. The book can either be read from cover to cover to fine tune the reader's existing oral communication skills or read in a modular fashion as a reference guide to focus on certain skills and techniques A list of over 55 proven effective presentation tools will be listed discussed and demonstrated throughout the book using illustrated criminal justice and forensic sciences topic examples Contrary to popular belief simply knowing your subject or being an expert in the subject does not guarantee a successful presentation Aristotle who many recognize as the Father of Public Speaking and Forensic Debate said it best when he declared It is not enough to know what to say one must know how to say it This guide focuses on technique and the recognition that a speaker must have of both the subject and the listener The purpose is to improve readers skill level and ability to engage and thereby inform the listener Whether preparing to speak to one person or one thousand people Public Speaking for Criminal Justice Professionals provides specific techniques for professionals to speaking with confidence and present effective engaging presentations

Human Activity, Social Practices and Lifelong Education Marc Durand,2016-04-14 This volume presents a scientific and practical trend in lifelong education which focuses on human activity This trend is particularly apparent in French speaking countries where a seminal tradition of ergonomics born in the middle of the 20th century produced studies about work and workers activity in various contexts Results demonstrate that working activity firstly is always complex creative and enigmatic despite the efforts done by the designers to create prescribing working environments and by managers to control production procedures and secondly cannot be understood without specific field studies about real work This approach influenced adult educational researchers and trainers to develop programs in order to help trainers to better know human activity and its transformations in various social practices and not only in working context It also helps them to design learning environments accompanying human activity transformations at various time scales The chapters in this volume present a range of original studies on human activity in various social practices such as tourism theatre prop makers in opera manual job environments management in a small company high level athletes illegal practices school teaching and finally during teachers retirement ceremonies These studies of the relationships between social practices and human activity and its transformations give empirical and conceptual bases for designing programs aimed at emphasizing and accompanying specific individual and collective learning and human development in a lifelong perspective This book was published as a special issue of International Journal of Lifelong Education

Sustainable Development and Resilience of Tourism Deepak Chhabra,Navin Atal,Alka Maheshwari,2024-08-29 This volume examines progress in sustainable and resilient development of niche forms of tourism from a health and wellbeing perspective. It also aims to offer deep and innovative insights on the supporting role of non pharmaceutical interventions to enhance resilience and wellbeing of visited and visiting communities. A comparative and critical discourse of the role of hard medicine is also offered from both a core and supplementary perspective particularly from eudaimonic and physiologically restorative standpoints. Furthermore indigenous non pharmaceutical interventions and spiritual healing mechanisms are discussed in the context of their potential to facilitate long term immunity and happiness. The book conceptually situates health as a fourth pillar of sustainability and examines its role in stimulating long lasting transformations rooted in positive psychology, inner transformation and sustainable consumption of organic products and services. It designs an evolving transformational Quality of Life paradigm that strengthens the foundations of health wellbeing based sustainable development initiatives and resilience of tourism systems. The work will be of interest to academic, professional and various public and private stakeholders of tourism such as destination marketing organizations, policy makers, hospitality industries, tour operators, host communities, NGOs and government agencies. The Scribe Method Tucker Max, Zach

Obront, 2021-04-15. Ready to write your book? So why haven't you done it yet? If you're like most nonfiction authors, fears are holding you back. Sound familiar? Is my idea good enough? How do I structure a book? What exactly are the steps to write it? How do I stay motivated? What if I actually finish it and it's bad? Worst of all, what if I publish it and no one cares? How do I know if I'm even doing the right things? The truth is, writing a book can be scary and overwhelming, but it doesn't have to be. There's a way to know you're on the right path and taking the right steps. How? By using a method that's been validated with thousands of other authors just like you. In fact, it's the same exact process used to produce dozens of big bestsellers including David Goggins's Can't Hurt Me, Tiffany Haddish's The Last Black Unicorn, and Joey Coleman's Never Lose a Customer Again. The Scribe Method is the tested and proven process that will help you navigate the entire book writing process from start to finish the right way. Written by 4x New York Times Bestselling Author Tucker Max and publishing expert Zach Obront, you'll learn the step by step method that has helped over 1,500 authors write and publish their books. Now a Wall Street Journal Bestseller itself, The Scribe Method is specifically designed for business leaders, personal development gurus, entrepreneurs, and any expert in their field who has accumulated years of hard won knowledge and wants to put it out into the world. Forget the rest of the books written by pretenders. This is the ultimate resource for anyone who wants to professionally write a great nonfiction book. Mobile and Social Media Journalism Anthony Adornato, 2021-07-29
