Nobody S Home:

Nobody's Home Scott Kennedy, 2024-03-15 The scourge of the monster house affects communities all across Canada so while the Toronto neighbourhood of York Mills is not unique in this respect it has suffered more than most owing to the generous size of its residential lots in what has now become the centre of the city York Mills was still a rural community until after the Second World War when a post war population boom created a housing boom that gobbled up the local woods and farmland By 1960 most of this land had been sacrificed for housing and by the mid 1970s it was all gone Then a strange thing began to happen Developers who had the money to outbid legitimate home buyers started tearing down perfectly liveable post war homes to build monster houses Today over fifty years later this destructive practice continues The environmental costs have been devastating as affordable houses are demolished their remains dumped in landfills and mature trees are cut down to facilitate the new construction construction that demands copious amounts of wood cement and other new building materials The social cost has been equally damaging as affordable homes are destroyed and replaced by multi million dollar houses that are out of reach of families who once called these neighbourhoods home The three hundred colour photos in this book recall but a fraction of the homes we have lost in this one community alone The text tells their stories stories that take us back to a time when houses were places to live not get rich quick schemes

Nobody's Home Thomas Edward Gass, 2005 After caring for his mother at the end of her life Thomas Gass took a job as a nursing home aide in a for profit long term care home This graphic poignant chilling book details his experiences in this warehouse for the elderly asks fundamental questions about care in American nursing homes

Nobody's Home Jade Black, Jade is a little girl growing up in a small town of two thousand people She doesn't know any better but to take the abuse her mother has to dole out Her father doesn't acknowledge her or try to save her although he knows what is going on This story is about how a little girl gets through her childhood not knowing where to turn or where to run Everywhere she looks and thinks to go for help she finds that her mother has already painted her as an uncontrollable child When Jade looks for help she receives blank stares back as if nobody's home She finds the strength to survive it all only to start out her adulthood unsure of what the future is holding for her Nobody's Home was written to inspire others who are in the same situation or know someone who needs help that is in an abusive household

Nobody's Home Arnold Weinstein, 1993-03-11 Nobody's Home is a bold view of the American novel from its beginnings to the contemporary scene Focusing on some of the deepest instincts of American life and culture individual liberty freedom of speech constructing a life Arnold Weinstein brilliantly sketches the remarkable career of the American self in some of the major works of the past one hundred fifty years Weinstein contends that American writers are haunted by the twin specters of the self as a mirage as Nobody and by the brutal forces of culture and ideology that deny selfhood to people on the basis of money sex and color of skin His central thesis is that language makes possible freedoms and accomplishments that are achievable in no other realm and that American fiction is a fascinating record of the human fight against coercion of the kinds of maneuvering room that we may find in life and in art This study is unique in several respects it offers some of the keenest readings of major American texts that have ever been written including some of the most significant works of the past decades and it fashions a rich and supple view of the American novel as a writerly form of freedom in sharp contrast to today's critical emphasis on blindness and coercion Nobody's Home Dubravka Ugrešić, 2008 In her long career Ugresic has published several novels e.g. The Ministry of Pain but she made her name with her essay collections which have caused controversy and earned her the admiration of writers and critics abroad In these latest musings written over the course of several years Ugresic leaves no stone unturned and no thought contained doing what she does best writing about the human condition through her own experience Refusing to establish a central theme she touches upon a wide range of topics the paradox of multiculturalism metaphors as our defense against nightmares the eerie similarities between capitalism and communism and ways in which we try to rise hopelessly above our less than perfect existence Along the way she pays homage to the works of literature that have influenced her own creative process in an effort to pay a symbolic literary tax on narcissism because writing is not the humblest of vocations Perhaps not but Ugresic certainly knows how to balance being a critic with being criticized Recommended for all libraries collecting cultural criticism Mirela Roncevic Library Journal Copyright Reed Business Information a division of Reed Elsevier Inc All rights reserved
