The Statutes at Large, the United States from ... United States,1926 United States Statutes at Large United States,1926 The Statutes at Large of the United States from ... United States,1926 Select List of References on Capital Punishment Library of Congress. Division of Bibliography,1912 German Idealism and the Concept of Punishment Jean-Christophe Merle,2015-12-17 Examines the views of the German Idealists on punishment and traces their gradual move in favour of deterrence and resocialisation XII. & XIII. Vict. c. 43. An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion of Officers and Soldiers in the service of the East India Company; and for regulating the Payment of Regimental Debts, etc. 28 July, 1849 England,1850 The T'ang Code, Volume II ,2014-07-14 This is the second and final volume of the annotated translation of a seminal Chinese legal text The T ang Code written in 653 A D is the most important legal text in East Asian history Not only is it China s earliest law code to survive in its entirety influencing all subsequent Chinese law but it has also served as a model for codes of law in other East Asian countries including Japan Korea and Vietnam This is the only translation of the T ang code into a Western language The first volume of the Code published in translation in 1979 specifies the basic principles of T ang law and explains the structural standards for applying these principles Volume II describes acts that are punishable by law and enumerates their punishments For contemporary readers the T ang Code is more than simply a legal document Studying the 445 specific articles sheds considerable light on Chinese culture The portrait that emerges has surprising resonances in present day Chinese society its emphasis on the preservation of the family and the interrelatedness of authority and responsibility for example As Western relations with the countries of East Asia continue to expand today it is increasingly important that we understand the complexities of a legal system that has evolved over more than fifteen centuries The availability of the complete T ang Code in English is a significant contribution to this understanding Originally published in 1997 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Philosophy of Punishment Anthony Ellis,2012-05-30 The series St Andrews Studies in Philosophy and Public Life originates in the Centre for Ethics Philosophy and Public Affairs University of St Andrews and is under the general editorship of John Haldane The series includes monographs collections of essays and occasional anthologies of source material representing study in those areas of philosophy most relevant to topics of public importance with the aim of advancing the contribution of philosophy in the discussion of these topics In this volume the author sets aside the usual division between theories of punishment that do or do not focus on retribution In its place he proposes and explores the distinction between internalist and externalist theories

The final chapter discusses the deterrent value of punishment Modelling and Decisions in Economics Ulrike Leopold-Wildburger, Gustav Feichtinger, Klaus-Peter Kistner, 2013-06-29 Franz Ferschl is seventy According to his birth certificate it is true but it is unbelievable Two of the three editors remembers very well the Golden Age of Operations Research at Bonn when Franz Ferschl worked together with Wilhelm Krelle Martin Beckmann and Horst Albach The importance of this fruitful cooperation is reflected by the fact that half of the contributors to this book were strongly influenced by Franz Ferschl and his colleagues at the University of Bonn Clearly Franz Ferschl left his traces at all the other places of his professional activities in Vienna and Munich This is demonstrated by the present volume as well Born in 1929 in the Upper Austrian Miihlviertel his scientific education brought him to Vienna where he studied mathematics In his early years he was attracted by Statistics and Operations Research During his employment at the Osterreichische Bundeskammer fUr Gewerbliche Wirtschaft in Vienna he prepared his famous book on queueing theory and stochastic processes in economics This work has been achieved during his scarce time left by his duties at the Bundeskammer mostly between 6 a m and midnight All those troubles were however soon rewarded by the chair of statistics at Bonn University As a real Austrian the amenities of the Rhineland could not prevent him from returning to Vienna where he took the chair of statistics

Modeling Complexity in Economic and Social Systems Frank Schweitzer, 2002 Economics and the social sciences are in fact the hard sciences as Herbert Simon argued because the complexity of the problems dealt with cannot simply be reduced to analytically solvable models or decomposed into separate subprocesses Nevertheless in recent years the emerging interdisciplinary sciences of complexity have provided new methods and tools for tackling these problems ranging from complex data analysis to sophisticated computer simulations In particular advanced methods developed in the natural sciences have recently also been applied to social and economic problems The twenty one chapters of this book reflect this modern development from various modeling perspectives such as agent based models evolutionary game theory reinforcement learning and neural network techniques time series analysis non equilibrium macroscopic dynamics and for a broad range of socio economic applications market dynamics technological evolution spatial dynamics and economic growth decision processes and agent societies They jointly demonstrate a shift of perspective in economics and the social sciences that is allowing a new outlook in this field to emerge
