

Romanticism

The Art of Faith

The Romanticism movement in Europe happened around 1800AD - 1850AD. Meaning "Romantic" the Romanticism architecture was similar to Roman design with columns and arches, however the paintings and sculptures of this time were very different than Roman style art. Romanticism paintings and sculptures mostly depicted stories from the Bible and therefore decorated many churches across Europe.

while enabling her to gain a sense of the other Due to an artwork s particular wealth multiperspectivity and dialecticity the engagement with it cannot culminate in the construction of world views but must initiate a process of self critical thinking which is a precondition of real self determination Ultimately then the aesthetic experience of art consists of a dynamic process of losing the sense of oneself while gaining a sense of the other and of achieving selfhood In his book Hilgers spells out the nature of this process by means of rethinking Kant s and Schopenhauer s aesthetic theories in light of more recent developments in philosophy specifically in hermeneutics critical theory and analytic philosophy and within the arts themselves specifically within film and performance art Bulletin of the Art Institute of Chicago ,1929 The Rough
