School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain,2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa

presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy Refugee Learner Experiences. A Case Study of Zimbabwean Refugee Children Lawrence

Meda,2017-09 This study is a presentation of Zimbabwean refugee learner experiences Children escaped political persecution and economic problems which affected Zimbabwe in the year 2008 Many of these children were abused and witnessed traumatic experiences their close relatives and neighbours being executed in cold blood This study was guided by three critical questions i who are the Zimbabwean refugee learners ii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners migration experiences and iii what were Zimbabwean refugee learners school experiences The study employed Bronfenbrenner s Social Ecological Model as its overarching theoretical framework Each stage of the refugee experience was described at each point in time Facets of Power Richard Saunders,Tinashe Nyamunda,2016-04-18 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the worlds largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwas diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the countrys security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwas diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the minerals secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou,Theodore Zervas,2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy
