
Abstract: These investigations were aimed at the assessment of safety and health risks in Germany. They are not based on health or work status. They are on the basis of epidemiological studies aimed at identifying the most important occupational risk factors. The results of the investigations are presented in the form of a series of reports. The results of the investigations are presented in the form of a series of reports.

- These independent social comparisons require and indicate an explicit comparison.
- Thus e.g. paper would need to refer to other papers and not simply present comparisons
- The few times it did happen, it was used when comparing one technique to
- A few cases of implicit social comparisons to themselves.
