resistance Through archives across four continents by way of chance encounters and miraculous discoveries and eventually guided by the shocking truth recorded in the pages of the forbidden book Meryl conjures the rogue spirit of her cousin her beauty and her tragedy Meryl s search reveals a lost world destroyed by hatred illuminating the cultural haven of Vilna and its resistance during World War II As she seeks to find her lost family legacy Meryl looks for answers to the questions that have defined her life what is our duty to the past How do we honor such memories while keeping them from consuming us And what do we teach our children about tragedy Motor Boat ,1922 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1893 The Motor Boat ,1922 To Be a Playwright ,2013-12-02 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company To be a Playwright Janet Neipris,2005 This book examines how debates over copyright law in the United States during the nineteenth century particularly over the lack of an international copyright law intersected with the business practices and political and artistic beliefs of American authors These debates shaped a discourse of literary property rights that forced authors to negotiate their copyrights not only with their publishers but with their readers as well The author argues that the act of taking out a copyright was more than a mere legal mechanism marking a transition from amateur to professional or artist to businessperson Taking out a copyright had a profound impact on how audiences viewed authors how authors perceived their profession and how they represented individual rights and property ownership within their texts The book is unique in the scope of its research tracking developments from the 1820s through the 1890s and in the way it approaches the work and careers of well known authors The author employs research from the American Antiquarian Society the Harriet Beecher Stowe Center and the Government and Special Collections at the University of Iowa drawing on an array of documents including newspaper editorials legislative hearings court decisions and the public and private writing of James Fenimore Cooper Walt Whitman Harriet Beecher Stowe Samuel Clemens and Emily Dickinson to demonstrate how authors found themselves in an uneasy opposition to their reading public Our Navy, the Standard Publication of the U.S. Navy ,1922 Past Imperfect Robert Harlan Moser,2002 If Moser had not lived the life he sets down in this memoir he would have had a hard time inventing it As fiction it would seem too picaresque too filled with wonderful adventure harrowing moments travel romance eccentric intellectual challenges and all the rewards and hardships of an extraordinary life in medicine But Moser has lived it and his art as a writer keeps pace with his animated life as a doctor The result is a book that takes a reader into the heart of medicine and into the heart of this fascinating man This is a lofty book by a man who has dared to climb to the heights of life and now writes of what there is to see Paul Trachtman Former Science Editor Smithsonian Magazine Bloody Foreigner Jacques K.
