Gardner Dozios sifts through hundreds of stories and dozens of authors who have gone on to become some of the most esteemed practitioners of the form to bring readers the ultimate anthology of short science fiction novels from his legendary series. Included are such notable short novels as Sailing to Byzantium by Robert Silverberg. In the twentieth century people of Earth are able to create entire cities on a whim including those of mythology and legend. When twentieth century traveler Charles Philip accidentally lands in this aberrant time period he is simultaneously obsessed with discovering more about this alluring world and getting back home. But in a world made entirely of man's creation things are not always as they seem on the surface. Forgiveness Day by Ursula K. Le Guin. Le Guin returns to her Hainish settled interstellar community the Edumens to tell the tale of two star-crossed lovers who are literally worlds apart in this story of politics, violence, religion, and cultural disparity. Turquoise Days by Alastair Reynolds. On a sea world planet covered with idyllic tropical oceans, peace seems pervasive. Beneath the placid water lurks an ominous force that has the potential to destroy all tranquility. Contributors include Greg Egan, Joe Haldeman, James Patrick Kelly, Nancy Kress, Ursula K. Le Guin, Ian R. MacLeod, Ian McDonald, Maureen F. McHugh, Frederick Pohl, Alastair Reynolds, Robert Silverberg, Michael Swanwick, Walter Jon Williams. With work spanning two decades, The Best of the Best Volume 2 stands as the ultimate anthology of short science fiction novels ever published in the world.

Roger Zelazny F. Brett Cox, 2021-05-11. Challenging convention with the SF nonconformist Roger Zelazny combined poetic prose with fearless literary ambition to become one of the most influential science fiction writers of the 1960s. Yet many critics found his later novels underachieving and his turn to fantasy a disappointment. F. Brett Cox surveys the landscape of Zelazny's creative life and contradictions. Launched by the classic 1963 short story A Rose for Ecclesiastes, Zelazny soon won the Hugo Award for Best Novel with And Call Me Conrad and two years later won again for Lord of Light. Cox looks at the author's overnight success and follows Zelazny into a period of continued formal experimentation, the commercial triumph of the Amber sword and sorcery novels, and renewed acclaim for Hugo-winning novellas such as Home Is the Hangman and 24 Views of Mt. Fuji by Hokusai. Throughout, Cox analyzes aspects of Zelazny's art from his preference for poetically alienated protagonists to the ways his plots reflected his determined individualism. Clear-eyed and detailed, Roger Zelazny provides an up-to-date reconsideration of an often misunderstood SF maverick.
