Siegel, 2006-05-11 How to keep any nonprofit out of trouble running smoothly and accomplishing its mission Jack Siegel lawyer accountant management consultant and computer whiz takes the putative director or officer of a nonprofit organization on a useful and often entertaining voyage throughout the realm of the tax exempt organizations universe pointing out its quirks foibles and legal liabilities along the way His handbook will make mandatory and arresting reading for those who are already serving as trustees directors officers and key employees of exempt organizations particularly charitable ones Siegel's goal in which he succeeds is to help directors and officers of nonprofit organizations make better decisions The book is full of large policy analyses and paragraphs on the details such as board size board committees board meeting formats the contents of minutes and the duties of officers Salted with some excellent real life examples what also sets this book apart from most in its genre is the tone the writing style the brusqueness the bluntness He complains that too many directors check their good judgment at the boardroom door He advises individuals who desire agreement and demand adulation to stay off boards he insists on commitment and institutional tension with the executive director He warns prospective directors that some organizations want in addition to time and judgment either your money or your ability to raise money To my delight he extols the virtues of some level of expenditures for qualified lawyers and accountants Please join me in adding this most helpful handbook to your nonprofit library Bruce R. Burke, 2018-10-01 More Women on Boards An International Perspective is the seventh volume in the Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice book series The purpose of this volume is to explore the complexity of issues related to increasing the number of women on boards of directors around the world how these issues have been understood how they have been more and less successfully addressed in different countries and industries and how they are similar and yet different as a results of cultural and legal differences In the Introduction and 18 chapters included in this book 42 researchers activists and practitioners who were raised or work today in at least 17 countries on 6 continents seek to answer the questions Why have women on boards Why is adding women to boards so challenging What actions increase the number of women on boards and What can we learn from situations where there are women board members In seeking to answer these questions the authors summarize previously existing research and share the results of their own recent qualitative and quantitative research studies conducted in many different countries Both fix the woman and fix the society challenges and solutions are explored Stories of women who have successfully joined and in many cases led boards of directors are shared It is clear to us and we believe will be clear to those who read this book that there is no single program that will lead to gender equality on boards however we believe that the authors in this volume provide a rich variety of research and well supported suggestions for addressing the challenges When local cultures are considered and multiple suggestions implemented as appropriate we are confident we will together increase the number of women on boards throughout the world
