Observations On The Spiritual Situation Of The Age:

Observations on "the Spiritual Situation of the Age" Jürgen Habermas, 1984 The essays in this collection provide an unusually rich set of original reflections on current German political social cultural religious and intellectual life

Observations on the Spiritual Situation of the Age Jürgen Habermas, 1984 The Rise and Demise of German Statism Gregg Kvistad, 1999-03-01 German statism as a political ideology has been the subject of many historical studies Whereas most of these focus on theoretical texts cultural works and vague traditions this study understands German statism as a functioning logic of political membership a logic that has helped to determine who is in and who is out with regard to the German political community Tracing statism from the early 19th century through German unification and beyond in the 1990s the author argues that with its central concern for a political loyalty that is vetted from above it historically served the function of stabilizing the political order and containing democratic mobilization Beginning in the 1960s however a mobilized German democratic consciousness from below gradually rejected statism as anachronistic for informing political and policy debate and German political institutions began to respond to kind Academia and the Luster of Capital Sande Cohen, Ideas says Sande Cohen have attained commodity status in the academy and knowledge is now seen as another capitalistic industry In Academia and the Luster of Capital Cohen both reveals and interrogates the specific and material workings of this economy of the marketplace of ideas Cohen uses paradigms from Baudrillard Lyotard Deleuze and Guattari to assemble a war machine against the well oiled apparatus of self preservation and self reproduction of the academic institution In detailed and concrete arguments he challenges accepted theories of criticism especially university based myths Academia and the Luster of Capital constitutes a compelling statement for the abandonment of legitimating officiating paradigms of thought in all academic disciplines and outlines possibilities for the emergence of the new in thought in action Dark Territory in the Information Age Matthew G. Hannah, 2017-05-15 Through a detailed account of the West German census controversies of the 1980s this book offers a robust and geographical sense of what effective resistance and empowerment might mean in an age when the intensification of surveillance society appears to render us ever more passive and incapable of controlling our own registration The Vitality of Critical Theory Harry F. Dahms, 2011-05-19 States that the critical theory of the Frankfurt School is as important today if not more so as it was at its inception during the 1930s This title looks at the distinguishing features of this tradition and how it is critical yet also complementary of other approaches in the social sciences especially in sociology Feminist Interpretations and Political Theory Carole Pateman, Mary Lyndon Shanley, 1991 This volume brings together exciting and provocative new feminist readings of famous classic and contemporary texts from Plato to Habermas The collection also includes examinations of the writings of Mary Wollstonecraft and Simone de Beauvoir that are usually excluded from the works conventionally held to comprise Western political thought The essays raise fundamentally important questions about the significance of sexual difference in the great works of political theory and draw attention to neglected arguments and silences in the texts No single feminist view of either the texts or the theoretical way forward informs these essays A wide diversity of feminist approaches and theoretical frameworks are represented forming a rich variety of interpretations and argument about such questions as the patriarchal construction of central political categories the relation between public and private life and the problem of equality and difference including differences among women This refreshing and stimulating collection will be indispensable for students of political thought and offers all those interested in the connection between the classic writings and current political discussions as accessible introduction to feminist argument

Weimar Intellectuals and the Threat of Modernity Dagmar Barnouw, 1988-06-22 the range power and archival resourcefulness of Barnouw's book will make it impossible for anyone working in the field to ignore this powerful and disturbing historical meditation on the societal function and responsibility of the intellectual The German Quarterly a work of real value for patient readers American Journal of Sociology a forceful and compelling thesis that challenges our understanding of several seminal figures writing during the first half of the century Monatshefte In this challenging study of a complex period Barnouw investigates the works of seven representative figures of the Weimar republic Walter Rahtenau Robert Musil Thomas Mann Walter Benjamin Ernst Jünger Hermann Broch and Alfred Döblin

Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960-1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory

Social And Political Structures In West Germany Ursula Hoffmann-lange, Peter Jelavich, Robert Rickards, Lewis J Edinger, 2019-05-28 This book offers a view of West German social structure and political culture from a multidisciplinary perspective Focusing on the remarkable changes that have taken place in West Germany since World War II it provides a basis for judging what direction a united Germany is likely to take

A Council that Will Never End Paul Lakeland, 2013 Lumen Gentium Vatican II's Dogmatic Constitution on the Church changed how the church thinks about the laity holiness baptism and even the nature and purpose of the church itself In A Council That Will Never End the highly regarded ecclesiologist Paul Lakeland marks the fiftieth anniversary of this document s promulgation by taking up three major themes of the constitution analyzing the text and identifying some of the questions with which it leaves us Lakeland is convinced that Lumen Gentium leaves much unfinished business as any historical document must that attending to it will take us beyond much of the now sterile ecclesial divisions and that the ecclesiology of humility it implies marks the way that theology must guide the church in the years ahead

Reading Patristic Texts on Social Ethics Johan Leemans, Brian J. Matz, Johan Verstraeten, 2011-04 The contributions for this volume emerged out of an expert seminar on the theme of the Church Fathers and Catholic social thought held in Leuven in 2007 p vii

Sociology of Religion in India Rowena Robinson, 2004-02-20 Focused on the theme of the sociology of religion this volume brings together essays by well known scholars which examine the resurgence of religious identities in the Indian context The contributors question many received notions address critical problems and raise important issues surrounding various current debates The papers are divided into four sections The first deals with religion society and national identity The next section is devoted to sects cults shrines and the making of traditions The third section discusses religious conversion while the last section provides a comparative perspective drawn from Pakistan Bangladesh Trinidad and Tobago and the United States Tackling a subject of immense contemporary importance and demonstrating a sensitivity to the shifts and changes brought about in faith identity and tradition this volume will be of considerable interest to students of sociology anthropology religion politics and history This book is one of the Indian Sociological Society Golden Jubilee Volumes

Words Made Flesh Elaine Graham, 2013-01-25 Words Made Flesh draws together a number of Elaine Graham s shorter writings and essays and thereby maps out the work of a pioneer theological thinker and the development of pastoral and practical theology in the last twenty years Elaine Graham considers the theological significance of topics as diverse as nativity plays science fiction gender consumerism cyberspace and urban regeneration They all share a concern with the way the sources and norms of the Christian tradition can enter into a creative and critical conversation with contemporary experience in order to generate the practical wisdom by which the life of the Church can be directed They reflect Elaine Graham s fundamental conviction that theology as talk about God in the world is always practical and public and that it begins and ends in the complexities of the human condition where words become flesh

Architecture in the Age of Divided Representation Dalibor Vesely, 2004 Reclaiming the humanistic role of architecture in the age of technology an examination of architecture s indispensable role as a cultural force throughout history

Health Care for an Aging Population Chris Hackler, 1994-07-28 This volume examines one of the most important policy issues to be faced as policymakers address both current and future health care needs the allocation of health care resources for an aging population The first part looks at the role of the aged in society what justice requires of the young toward the old and of the old toward the young the source of rising health care costs and the need to control medical spending The second part focuses on dramatic and controversial proposals by Daniel Callahan and others to control medical spending in the next century by rationing life prolonging treatment according to age Concluding chapters provide concrete proposals for a system that solves our immediate problems of cost and access while preparing for the extraordinary needs of an aging population This book explores proposed changes in the U S health care system to meet unprecedented demand expected early in the next century when the baby boom generation reaches retirement age and eligibility for Medicare A focal point is the possibility of withholding publicly funded life prolonging medical care from the very old

Germany in the Age of Kaiser Wilhelm II James Retallack,1996-05-01 This lively and concise book uses a dual approach to introduce students and non specialists to Wilhelmine Germany 1888 1918 It surveys social economic political cultural and diplomatic developments in an age of tumultuous upheaval It also explains why historians have so often reversed the interpretative switches guiding research on this period By highlighting the breadth of historical change under Wilhelm II and the evolution of opposing viewpoints about its significance this book provides easy access to an epoch and a debate characterised more by controversy than consensus

Karl Jaspers and the Role of "conversion" in the Nuclear Age Gregory J. Walters,1988 Analyzes and critiques Karl Jaspers philosophy on the atom bomb and its relation to the future of humanity This work studies the human transformations called for by Jaspers in science politics and religion and develops the limits and possibilities of Jaspers ideas from the perspective of present nuclear capabilities contemporary moral discourse and Christian faith

COVID-19 and Public Policy in the Digital Age Andrea Monti,Raymond Wacks,2020-12-23 COVID 19 and Public Policy in the Digital Age explores how states and societies have responded to the COVID 19 pandemic and their long term implications for public policy and the rule of law globally It examines the extent to which existing methods of protecting public safety and national security measure up in a time of crisis The volume also examines how these ideas themselves have undergone transformation in the context of the global crisis This book Explores the intersection of public policy individual rights and technology Analyzes the role of science in determining political choices Reconsiders our understanding of security studies on a global scale arising out of antisocial behaviour panic buying and stockpiling of food and in the United States arms Probes the role of fake news and social media in crisis situations and Provides a critical analysis of the notion of global surveillance in relation to the pandemic A timely prescient volume on the many ramifications of the pandemic this book will be essential reading for professionals scholars researchers and students of public policy especially practitioners working in the fields of technology and society security studies law media studies and public health

Paths of Continuity Hartmut Lehmann,James Van Horn Melton,2003-01-30 The defeat of National Socialism in 1945 was a pivotal point in Central European history For the writing and practice of history however the event proved far less decisive In West Germany and Austria most historians who had taught under the Nazis retained their positions after 1945 Even those dismissed for their National Socialist sympathies were often able to resume their careers And an entire generation of younger historians trained during the Nazi years was to enter the historical profession after 1945 Paths of Continuity examines the effect of this professional continuity on West German historical scholarship and the impact of the Third Reich on the way German language historians practiced their craft The essays look at ten prominent German and Austrian historians whose lives and work spanned the period before and after 1945 Friedrich Meinecke Gerhard Ritter Hans Rothfels Franz Schnabel Heinrich Ritter von Srbik Hans Freyer Hermann Aubin Otto Brunner Werner Conze and Theodor Schieder All responded to the Nazi regime in different ways Some willingly embraced the New Order of National Socialism others kept their distance from the regime or openly opposed it Ironically however those who were least compromised by Nazi involvements and who emerged after 1945 with the greatest moral and professional authority often proved the most resistant to change within the discipline Conversely much of the impetus for scholarly innovation after 1945 came from historians with earlier ties to the anti liberal folk history of the Nazi era Exploring these and other paradoxes this collection of essays provides fresh insight into the development of German historical scholarship since 1945
