Louis Malle
Christopher Beach, 2022-05-23 A filmmaker whose work exhibits a wide range of styles and approaches Louis Malle 1932 1995 was the only French director of his generation to enjoy a significant career in both France and the United States Although Malle began his career alongside members of the French New Wave like Fran ois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard and Claude Chabrol he never associated himself with that group Malle is perhaps best known for his willingness to take on such difficult or controversial topics as suicide incest child prostitution and collaboration with the Nazis during World War II His filmography includes narrative films like Zazie dans le Métro Murmur of the Heart Atlantic City My Dinner with Andre and Au revoir les enfants as well as several major documentaries In the late 1970s Malle moved to the United States where he worked primarily outside of the Hollywood studio system The films of his American period display his keen outsider s eye which allowed him to observe diverse aspects of American life in settings that ranged from turn of the century New Orleans to present day Atlantic City and the Texas Gulf Coast Louis Malle Interviews covers the entirety of Malle s career and features seventeen interviews the majority of which are translated into English here for the first time As the collection demonstrates Malle was an extremely intelligent and articulate filmmaker who thought deeply about his own choices as a director the ideological implications of those choices and the often controversial themes treated in his films The interviews address such topics as Malle's approach to casting and directing actors his attitude toward provocative subject matter and censorship his understanding of the relationship between documentary and fiction film and the differences between the film industries in France and the US Malle also discusses his sometimes challenging work with such actors as Brigitte Bardot Pierre Blaise and Brooke Shields and sheds new light on the making of his films The Brilliant Dark S.M.
