Contributions by Torsten Caeners Phoebe Chen Mathieu Donner Shannon Hervey Angela S Insenga Patricia Kennon Maryna Matlock Ferne Merrylees Lars Schmeink Anita Tarr Tony M Vinci and Donna R White For centuries humanism has provided a paradigm for what it means to be human a rational unique unified universal autonomous being Recently however a new philosophical approach posthumanism has questioned these assumptions asserting that being human is not a fixed state but one always dynamic and evolving Restrictive boundaries are no longer in play and we do not define who we are by delineating what we are not animal machine monster There is no one aspect that makes a being human self awareness emotion artistic expression or problem solving since human characteristics reside in other species along with shared DNA. Instead posthumanism looks at the ways our bodies intelligence and behavior connect and interact with the environment technology and other species. In Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction: Finding Humanity in a Posthuman World editors Anita Tarr and Donna R White collect twelve essays that explore this new discipline's relevance in young adult literature. Adolescents often tangle with many issues raised by posthumanist theory such as body issues. The in-betweenness of adolescence makes stories for young adults ripe for posthumanist study. Contributors to the volume explore ideas of posthumanism including democratization of power, body enhancements, hybridity, multiplicity, plurality, and the environment by analyzing recent works for young adults including award winners like Paolo Bacigalupi's Ship Breaker and Nancy Farmer's The House of the Scorpion as well as the works of Octavia Butler and China Miéville.
