

The Great War War Consumes Europe

German War Plan - Schlieffen Plan

Germany was faced with a two front war in 1914, with Russia to the east and France to the west.

German army General Schlieffen organized a battle plan designed to take on both France and Russia. The idea was to quickly defeat France first, and then defeat the Russians.

German generals predicted Russia would be slow to mobilize due to a lack of industrialization and a shortage of railroads.

In order for the Schlieffen Plan to work, German armies had to march through neutral Belgium, which was protected by Great Britain.

Once Germany invaded Belgium, Great Britain declared war.

Just as planned, Germany swept through Belgium. However, Russia mobilized much quicker than expected.

To fight the Russians, Germany had to divert some of its forces to the east, which weakened their forces on the western front.

When British forces arrived in France the German drive to Paris stalled, and both sides dug in for winter. The remaining four years of war would be a stalemate on the western front, fought in the trenches.

Costly Battles

Tannenberg, 1914	Verdun, 1916	The Somme, 1916
- At the start of the war the Russians speedily drove into Germany from the east, but suffered a crushing defeat at Tannenberg. - Russian soldiers were often sent into battle without rifles or ammunition, and over a million Russians were killed.	The Germans tried to overwhelm the French at Verdun, but failed. 	- At the Somme River the British lost 50,000 soldiers in one day. - By the time the month-long battle was over a million soldiers had died, with the Allies only gaining around 10 miles.
