Querying the Medieval Ronald Inden,Jonathan Walters,Daud Ali,2000-06-08 Drawing on thinkers as diverse as V N Volosinov R G Collingwood and E Laclau this volume challenges the predominant idea of a text as monological both in its authorist and contextualist versions The authors instead seek to understand texts as dialogical moments in the relations that agents have with themselves and with other agents From this perspective each author is able to pry open a particular text and reveal the articulative relation that each has had with the world in which it was situated The result is a revised look at the relationship between history national identity and religion in medieval South Asia BOOK JACKET
