Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the problems associated with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the United States Housing Act, guaranteeing veterans a year's income if unemployed, benefits while job hunting, or offered internment, federally guaranteed loans.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage.

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques through production houses, offering houses for small residential communities called suburbs for less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommendations, including limits on the amounts spending on prices, wages, and rents.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration said the nation's workers could be able to refuse to work on the job. He instructed the federal government to union that threat, and threatened to take control of the industry, for the very industry (used to work for them).

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration wanted an anti-discrimination act that would end housing, employment, in government and public accommodations, integration of the armed forces, and end to discrimination in the federal government employment.
--	---

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders in, Eisenhower, and Paul Robeson.

Robeson	The Robeson were asked to work some facilities (like the hospital) collected a severe housing shortage.
