Seeing Stars Dennis J. Frost, 2020-03-17 In Seeing Stars Dennis J Frost traces the emergence and evolution of sports celebrity in Japan from the seventeenth through the twenty first centuries Frost explores how various constituencies have repeatedly molded and deployed representations of individual athletes revealing that sports stars are socially constructed phenomena the products of both particular historical moments and broader discourses of celebrity Drawing from media coverage biographies literary works athletes memoirs bureaucratic memoranda interviews and films Frost argues that the largely unquestioned mass of information about sports stars not only reflects but also shapes society and body culture He examines the lives and times of star athletes including sumo grand champion Hitachiyama female Olympic medalist Hitomi Kinue legendary pitcher Sawamura Eiji and world champion boxer Gushiken Yoko demonstrating how representations of such sports stars mediated Japan's emergence into the putatively universal realm of sports unsettled orthodox notions of gender facilitated wartime mobilization of physically fit men and women and masked lingering inequalities in postwar Japanese society As the first critical examination of the history of sports celebrity outside a Euro American context this book also sheds new light on the transnational forces at play in the production and impact of celebrity images and dispels misconceptions that sports stars in the non West are mere imitations of their Western counterparts culture wars In December 1935 Zdeněk Koubek one of the most famous sprinters in European women's sports declared he was now living as a man Around the same time the celebrated British field athlete Mark Weston also assigned female at birth announced that he too was a man Periodicals and radio programs across the world carried the news both became global celebrities A few decades later they were all but forgotten And in the wake of their transitions what could have been a push toward equality became instead through a confluence of bureaucracy war and sheer happenstance the exact opposite the now all too familiar panic around trans intersex and gender nonconforming athletes In The Other Olympians Michael Waters uncovers for the first time the gripping true stories of Koubek Weston and other pioneering trans and intersex athletes from their era With dogged research and cinematic flair Waters also tracks how International Olympic Committee members ignored Nazi Germany's atrocities in order to pull off the Berlin Games a partnership that ultimately influenced the IOC's nearly century long obsession with surveilling and cataloging gender Immersive and revelatory The Other Olympians is a groundbreaking hidden in the archives marvel an inspiring call for equality and an essential contribution toward understanding the contemporary culture wars over gender in sports

Morality's Progress Dale Jamieson, 2002 Morality's Progress is the summation of nearly three decades of work by Dale Jamieson a leading figure in environmental ethics and bioethics The twenty two papers here are invigoratingly diverse but together tell a unified story about various aspects of the morality of our relationships to animals and to nature The volume begins by addressing the possibility of moral progress and the value of practical ethics It then moves on to discuss the nature of animal minds and our moral duties with respect to animals it concludes with essays that address larger environmental questions Considered as a whole Morality's Progress is an attempt to draw out the moral consequences of a thoroughgoing Darwinian Naturalism The perspective that informs this work is philosophically naturalist morally consequentialist and metaethically constructivist Jamieson's essays will convince sceptics that thinking about our moral relations to animals and nature can offer great intellectual reward and his work here sets a challenging controversial agenda for the future
