The Nineteenth Century and After, 1928 Nineteenth Century and After, 1928 New Interventionist Just War Theory Jordy Rocheleau, 2021-11-22 This book offers a systematic critique of recent interventionist just war theories which have made the recourse to force easier to justify The work argues that these theories including neo traditionalist prerogatives to national leaders and a cosmopolitan human rights paradigm offer criteria for war that are insufficient in principle and dangerous in practice Drawing on a plurality of moral considerations the book recommends a modified legalist national defense paradigm which includes an atrocity threshold for humanitarian intervention and a legitimate authorization requirement The plausibility of this restrictive framework is applied to case studies including the long wars in Iraq and Afghanistan ongoing targeted killing and possible interventions in Syria and elsewhere Various arguments which seek to loosen the criteria for war are also systematically analyzed and criticized This book will be of much interest to students of just war theory military history ethics political philosophy and international relations Problems of Communism, 1978

Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security Wendy C. Grenade, 2024-12-20 Multidimensional Threats and Regional Responses to Caribbean Security assesses the prevalence and intensity of intersecting security threats such as transnational organized crime pandemics and climate change on the state of the Caribbean Community CARICOM The interplay of these various threats can adversely affect small island developing states SIDS This book aims to expose the fault lines in Western centric international relations which neglects non military issues

non state actors and other security issues affecting SIDS This volume also explores the efficacy of security regionalism for SIDS where multiple actors cooperate across different levels and pool sovereignty resources and capabilities within legitimate institutional structures in order to prepare for prevent and collectively respond to severe security threats This book argues for a more inclusive global IR that considers the realities of the developing world and a reimagining of security regionalism among CARICOM SIDS

American Security and the Global War on Terror Edwin Jacob, 2020-04-08 This book delivers an interpretive framework for making sense of today's geopolitical landscape and casts new light on the impact ideology and technology have had on American foreign policy and contemporary security practices Edwin Daniel Jacob argues that America's security practices in the Global War on Terror have been guided by an anachronistic Cold War logic that has subordinated strategy to tactics Jacob shows that deep rooted prejudices and presuppositions regarding American exceptionalism have had a disastrous impact on the policies of the United States not only in dealing with terrorism but also in seeking to impose American hegemony in the Middle East Ineffectual security practices of dubious moral character from rendition and torture to preemptive strikes and nation building to drones and assassinations privilege exigency over ethics Yet the result of this post strategic approach to security where interchangeable tactics like these masquerade as strategy only increases insecurity Jacob offers a fresh perspective on American foreign policy that links national security with human security in regional terms This approach highlights the need for order predictability and stability the cornerstone of political realism Making use of insights derived from Machiavelli Hobbes Marx Weber Schmitt and Morgenthau this interdisciplinary work provides an overview of American foreign policy in the twenty first century and speaks to crucial themes in the fields of history political science and sociology

French Colonialism Leonard V. Smith, 2023-07-06 France had the second largest empire in the world after Britain but one with very different origins and purposes Over more than four centuries the French empire explained itself in many different ways through many different colonial regimes Beginning in the early modern period a vast mercantile empire based on furs and fish in the New World and sugar cultivated by the enslaved in the Caribbean rose and fell At intervals thereafter the French seemed to have an empire simply as an attribute of a Great Power generally in competition with Britain Relatively few French people ever moved to the empire even to the settler colony of Algeria Under the Third Republic the French construed a civilizing mission melding selectively applied principles of democracy and colonial capitalism Two world wars and two anticolonial wars broke French imperial power as it had previously existed yet numberless traces of the French empire lived on both in the former colonies and in today's French Republic This narrative history recounts the unique course of the French empire questioning how it made sense to the people who ruled it lived under it and fought against it

The Politics of Trade in Latin American Development Steven E. Sanderson, 1992 In this innovative synthesis and reconstruction of the role of trade in Latin American development the author asks what have been the political terms of trade in Latin America and why have they differed so much from the multilateral and national trade politics of the advanced capitalist countries especially the United States He shows in great detail how a new conceptual approach to this question can help us to understand why and with what limits Latin America now seems ready to accept the mantle of free trade This book is a unique attempt to link some of the most provocative hypotheses from the literatures of international trade development regional economic history and resource management to national politics in Latin America It takes a fresh look at old academic questions critiques the received knowledge on trade and offers some new data documents and indexes To the standard literature on Latin American trade the author adds insights and information from other literatures resource conservation poverty alleviation and national development strategies to name a few The current trend toward looking at constraints and possibilities in the trade system is reshaped to ask familiar questions in a concrete empirical way What changes in development design come from external shock and under what conditions Does the pressure of the international system actually force Latin American countries to alter their rates and kinds of natural resource exploitation Can a political course of export promotion address the debt crisis effectively Are the multilateral trade negotiations a useful format for Latin American trade and development problems And finally can we say anything with authority about Latin America as a region Liberty ,1897 State Normal Monthly Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia,1898 Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought (set) Gregory Claeys,2013-08-20 This groundbreaking new work explores modern and contemporary political thought since 1750 looking at the thinkers concepts debates issues and national traditions that have shaped political thought from the Enlightenment to post modernism and post structuralism Encyclopedia of Modern Political Thought is two volume A to Z reference that provides historical context to the philosophical issues and debates that have shaped attitudes toward democracy citizenship rights property duties justice equality community law power gender race and legitimacy over the last three centuries It profiles major and minor political thinkers and the national traditions both Western and non Western which continue to shape and divide political thought More than 200 scholars from leading international research institutions and organizations have provided signed entries that offer comprehensive coverage of Thought of regions and countries including African political thought American political thought Australasian political thought Australian and New Zealand Chinese political thought Indian political thought Islamic political Thought Japanese political thought and more Thought regarding contemporary issues such as abortion affirmative action animal rights European integration feminism humanitarian intervention international law race and racism and more The ideological spectrum from Marxism to neoconservatism including anarchism conservatism Darwinism and Social Darwinism Engels fascism the Frankfurt School Lenin and Leninism socialism and more Connections of political thought to key areas of politics and other disciplines such as economics psychology law and religion Notable time periods of political thought since 1750 Concepts including class democratic theory liberalism nationalism natural and human rights and theories of the state Theorists and political intellectuals both Western and non Western including John Adams Edmund Burke Mohandas Gandhi Immanuel Kant Ayatollah Khomeini Ernst Friedrich Schumacher George Washington and Mary Wollstonecraft
