Frans Floris (1519/20-1570): Imagining a Northern Renaissance Edward H. Wouk, 2018-03-20 Frans Floris de Vriendt radically transformed Netherlandish art His monumental mythologies introduced a new appreciation for the heroic nude to the Low Countries and his religious art challenged standards of decorum Born into a family of sculptors and architects Floris refashioned his art through travel first studying with the humanist painter Lambert Lombard in Liège and then continuing on to Italy These experiences defined the hybridizing novelty of his art forged by juxtaposing antique and modern Italian and northern sources This book maps Floris's hybrid style onto shifting conceptions of cultural religious and political identity on the eve of the Dutch Revolt It explores his collaborations and rivalries engagement with artistic theory hierarchical workshop and revolutionary use of print

Colten,Geoffrey L. Buckley,2014-03-27 This groundbreaking volume offers a fresh approach to conceptualizing the historical geography of North America by taking a thematic rather than a traditional regional perspective Leading geographers building on current scholarship in the field explore five central themes Part I explores the settling and resettling of the continent through the experiences of Native Americans early European arrivals and Africans Part II examines nineteenth century European immigrants the reconfiguration of Native society and the internal migration of African Americans Part III considers human transformations of the natural landscape in carving out a transportation network replumbing waterways extracting timber and minerals preserving wilderness and protecting wildlife Part IV focuses on human landscapes blending discussions of the visible imprint of society and distinctive approaches to interpreting these features The authors discuss survey systems regional landscapes and tourist and mythic landscapes as well as the role of race gender and photographic representation in shaping our understanding of past landscapes Part V follows the urban impulse in an analysis of the development of the mercantile city nineteenth and twentieth century planning and environmental justice With its focus on human environment interactions the mobility of people and growing urbanization this thoughtful text will give students a uniquely geographical way to understand North American history Contributions by Derek H Alderman Timothy G Anderson Kevin Blake Christopher G Boone Geoffrey L Buckley Craig E Colten Michael P Conzen Lary M Dilsaver Mona Domosh William E Doolittle Joshua Inwood Ines M Miyares E Arnold Modlin Jr Edward K Muller Michael D Myers Karl Raitz Jasper Rubin Joan M Schwartz Steven Silvern Andrew Sluyter Jeffrey S Smith Robert Wilson William Wyckoff and Yolonda Youngs Ludwig Hilberseimer Scott Colman,2023-07-27 The German American architect art critic and urban planner Ludwig Hilberseimer was central to avant garde art and architecture in the Weimar Republic an important Bauhaus teacher and long standing collaborator of leading modern architect Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Despite being internationally known for his work on Lafayette Park in Detroit Hilberseimer s legacy as a whole has been obscured in the history of modern architecture Whether this is due to the intense shadow cast by Mies or by his oeuvre being split between the differing languages and contexts of interwar Germany and postwar North America this book argues that the time is now right for a critical reassessment of Hilberseimer s work and writings Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects this study clarifies and situates Hilberseimer s ideas both as an architect and writer and examines their influence on modern and contemporary architecture and urbanism The first synthetic account of Hilberseimer in English it provides a contextual account of Hilberseimer s works which have until now been subject to fragmentary or highly specialized interpretations By demonstrating the influence of Hilberseimer's ideas on the architecture of Mies van der Rohe the book also lends Mies's work a newfound urban significance Saturday Review of Literature, 1924 Three Golden Ages Alf J. Mapp, 1998-11-13 In this intriguing book best selling author Alf Mapp Jr explores three periods in Western history that exploded with creativity Elizabethan England Renaissance Florence and America's founding What enabled these societies to make staggering jumps in scientific knowledge develop new political structures or create timeless works of art Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal Patel, 2017-07-21 This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history However this is done through a deliberate productive failure specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories For instance one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar The author examines whiteness the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history Overall this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history What Does 'Art' Mean Now? Bruce Fleming, 2023-06-22 What Does Art Mean Now asks and answers fundamental questions about the nature of aesthetic experience and role of the arts in contemporary society The Modern Age Romanticism and beyond viewed art as something transcending and separated from life and usually something encountered in museums or classrooms Nowadays however art tends to be defined not by a commonly agreed upon standard of quality or by its forms such as painting and sculpture but instead by political and ideological criteria So how do we connect with the works in museums whose point was precisely that they stood apart from such considerations Can we and should we be educated to appreciate art and what does it do for us anyway What are we to make of the so different newer works installations performances excerpts from the world held to be art that increasingly make it into museums Adopting a subjectivist approach this book argues that in the absence of a universal judgment or standard of taste the experience of art is one of freedom The arts give us the means to conceptualize our lives showing us ourselves as we are and as we might wish or not wish to be as well as where we have been and where we are going It will appeal to scholars of sociology philosophy museum studies and art history and to anyone interested in or puzzled by museums or college courses and their presentation of art today
