Teenagers, Literacy and School Ken Cruickshank,2006-09-27 This unique and timely book follows the experiences of four Arabic teenagers their families and their community focusing on the role of literacy in their daily lives and the differences between home and school The author looks at the conflict between expectations and practices at school and in the home arguing that problems are inevitable where class and cultural differences exist Emerging themes include how literacy practices in the community are undergoing rapid change due to global developments in technology how the patterns of written and spoken language in English and Arabic in the home are linked with social practices in logical and coherent ways how many of the family practices that differ from school culture and language become marginalised Built around these insightful case studies yet grounded in theory this book is of immediate relevance to teachers working in multicultural contexts and students and lecturers in language literacy or on TESOL courses

Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Macro Level Katherine van Wormer,Fred H. Besthorn,2010-10-11 A timely revision in this global age Human Behavior and the Social Environment Macro Level develops a sophisticated and original view of the cultural global spiritual and natural worlds that people inhabit and the impact of these worlds on human behavior Its major new theme sustainability emerges as a key characteristic of contemporary practice What is sustainable social work What are the characteristics of a sustainable community How is the present exploitation of environmental resources unsustainable for future generations Following the greatest economic upheaval since the Great Depression how can we envision a sustainable economy that will benefit all the people not only the wealthy few Human behavior results from biological psychological socio economic and cultural forces but the mental health field has placed the most emphasis on intrapsychic factors to the near exclusion of socio economic and cultural considerations This significant collaboration seeks to correct this omission by helping students recognize patterns in the family culture and value systems in order to create safe and sustainable environments for their future clients The emphasis on sustainable and unsustainable social welfare programs is geared to helping readers engage in advocacy for social justice Integrates up to date research findings models and government statistics Enhanced discussions of theory group dynamics family community and the environment Theoretical concepts and practice implications in each chapter Highlights the importance of the natural environment and ecology the community of the earth to human and group behavior Sets forth a refined understanding of the role of spirituality the community of faith in people s lives Focuses on evidence based theory and research Teaches from a global cross cultural perspective highlighting themes of empowerment and social justice Features dynamic readings personal narratives and photographs that highlight each chapter s topic Accompanied by an online instructor s manual with lecture presentations chapter summaries key terms suggested classroom activities and a test bank with essay and multiple choice questions at www.oup.com/us/HBSE Don t miss the companion volume Human Behavior and the Social Environment Micro Level Second Edition which offers an eye opening view of how biological psychological and cultural forces influence individuals behavior

Bureau Publication ... ,1953 Chinese Americans and Their Immigrant Parents Terry S Trepper,May Tung,2013-05-13 Based on culture related themes derived from the author s psychotherapeutic work with young Chinese American professionals this important book relates personal problems and conditions to specific sources in Chinese and American cultures and the immigration experience Unique and practical this is a nonclinical work that will help Asian Americans connect historical and cultural meanings to their Chinese roots It will also give educators mental health professionals and those working with Chinese populations firsthand insight into the lives and identities of Chinese American immigrants Exploring the meaning and arrangement of Chinese family names the bonds among family members and the different contexts of self to Chinese Americans this valuable book offers you insight into the dilemma between self and family that both the younger and older generations must face in American society In order to help you understand Chinese immigrants or help your clients Chinese Americans and Their Immigrant Parents provides you with information about several differences found between the two cultures such as understanding that words and concepts may not relate to the same emotions or translate exactly between languages realizing that strong family bonds of the Chinese fosters interdependence unlike Americans who admire self assertiveness and independence recognizing the fear that Chinese immigrant parents have of losing their strong family ties and seeing their children forsake customs because they do not want to be seen as different discovering why risk taking and adventurous acts are discouraged by many Chinese parents comprehending the great importance to Chinese parents of continuing their family and raising successful children acknowledging the different roles of men and women within several different contexts in American and Chinese societies With personal vignettes humor and interesting insights Chinese Americans and Their Immigrant Parents Conflict Identity and Values demonstrates how some Chinese Americans are connecting historical and cultural meanings to their Chinese roots and bridging generational gaps between themselves and their parents to create a truly cross cultural identity

Barriers, Borders and Crossings in British Postcolonial Fiction Cecilia Rosa Acquarone, 2013-05-20 Dr Cecilia Acquarone's perceptive analysis of liminality in British postcolonial fiction from a gender perspective constitutes an innovative thought provoking and crystal clear study of female versus male responses to the challenges of postmodernity as exemplified by significant British postcolonial writers The book can be justly praised for the lucid use of theoretical language and the exploration of modern and postmodern ideology in an unobtrusive form pinpointing the most significant phenomena related to the topic in question Dr Acquarone locates the relevance of barriers borders and crossings with gender on the agenda within the realm of tragedy and comedy providing a sensible and sensitive humanistic approach to the works of some of the most outstanding authors of British postcolonial fiction In sum Cecilia Acquarone's book is undoubtedly an invaluable contribution to the field of British postcolonial studies Dr Antonio Ballesteros Gonzalez Spanish Open University Cecilia Acquarone's Barriers Borders and Crossing in British Postcolonial Fiction A Gender Perspective is a particularly interesting contribution to the field of postcolonial criticism due to its perceptive intertwining of a sound theoretical background and a sensitive close reading of representative novels by major writers of contemporary multicultural Britain In a clear prose she sheds light on highly complex philosophical and sociological issues expounding on what the feminine and the masculine perspective can contribute to the hard task of peaceful coexistence in contemporary British multicultural society ngeles de la Concha Catedr tica de Filolog a Inglesa Universidad Nacional de Educaci n a Distancia Barriers Borders and Crossing in British Postcolonial Fiction A Gender Perspective provides an original attempt to map an increasingly visible body of writing in the UK in recent years In her analysis of key novels by black and Asian British writers the author highlights an opposition between the predominantly tragic vision of life of the male authors and the fundamentally comic vision of life found in the women writers The author offers a provocative reading of recent black and Asian British fiction as postmodernist works in which the writers respond differently to contemporary conditions The volume is a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial studies and diaspora studies and its use of the comedy tragedy paradigm to understand recent fiction enriches more common approaches to the two major ways of experiencing and discussing diaspora Dr Sof a Mu oz Valdivieso Associate Professor University of Malaga

Men to Boys Gary S. Cross, 2008 When did maturity become the ultimate taboo Men have gone from idolizing Cary Grant to aping Hugh Grant shunning marriage and responsibility well into their twenties and thirties Gary Cross renowned cultural historian identifies the boy man and his habits examining the attitudes and practices of three generations to make sense of this gradual but profound shift in American masculinity Cross matches the rise of the American boy man to trends in twentieth century advertising popular culture and consumerism and he locates the roots of our present crisis in the vague call for a new model of leadership that ultimately failed to offer a better concept of maturity De-Centring

Western Sexualities Robert Kulpa, Joanna Mizielińska, 2016-04-08 De Centring Western Sexualities critically assesses the current state of knowledge about sexualities outside the framings of The West by focusing on gender and sexuality within the context of Central and Eastern Europe Providing rich case studies drawn from a range of post communist countries this interdisciplinary volume brings together the latest research on the formation of sexualities in Central and Eastern Europe alongside analyses of the sexual and national identity politics of the region Engaged with current debates within queer studies surrounding temporality and knowledge production and inspired by post colonial critique the book problematises the Western hegemony that often characterises sexuality studies and presents local theoretical insights better attuned to their geo temporal realities As such it offers a cultural and social re evaluation of everyday life experiences and will be of interest to sociologists queer studies scholars geographers and anthropologists Coming Ashore Catherine Gildiner, 2014-10-01

The third and final volume in the spirited and witty memoir series Picking up her story in the late 60s at age 21 Cathy Gildiner whisks the reader through five years and three countries beginning when she is a poetry student at Oxford Her education extended beyond the classroom to London s swinging Carnaby Street the mountains of Wales and a posh country estate After Oxford Cathy returns to Cleveland Ohio which was still reeling from the Hough Ghetto Riots Not one to shy away from a challenge she teaches at a high school where police escort teachers through the parking lot There she tries to engage apathetic students and tussles with the education authorities In 1970 Cathy moves to Canada While studying literature at the University of Toronto she rooms with members of the FLQ Quebec separatists and then with one of the biggest drug dealers in Canada Along the way she falls in love with the man who eventually became her husband and embarks on a new career in psychology Coming Ashore brings readers back to a fascinating era populated by lively characters but most memorable of all is the singular Cathy McClure The BackLit bonus content includes a reader s guide Q A with the author and more

Motherhood, Religion, and Society in Medieval Europe, 400-1400 Lesley Smith, Conrad Leyser, 2016-04-22 Who can concentrate on thoughts of Scripture or philosophy and be able to endure babies crying Will he put up with the constant muddle and squalor which small children bring into the home The wealthy can do so but philosophers lead a very different life So according to Peter Abelard did his wife Heloise state in characteristically stark terms the antithetical demands of family and scholarship Heloise was not alone in making this assumption Sources from Jerome onward never cease to remind us that the life of the mind stands at odds with life in the family For all that we have moved in the past two generations beyond kings and battles fiefs and barons motherhood has remained a blind spot for medieval historians Whatever the reasons the result is that the historiography of the medieval period is largely motherless The aim of this book is to insist that this picture is intolerably one dimensional and to begin to change it The volume is focussed on the paradox of motherhood in the European Middle Ages to be a mother is at once to hold great power and by the same token to be acutely vulnerable The essays look to analyse the powers and the dangers of motherhood within the warp and weft of social history beginning with the premise that religious discourse or practice served as a medium in which mothers and others could assess their situation defend claims and make accusations Within this frame three main themes emerge survival agency and institutionalization The volume spans the length and breadth of the Middle Ages from late Roman North Africa through ninth century Byzantium to late medieval Somerset drawing in a range of types of historian including textual scholars literary critics students of religion and economic historians The unity of the volume arises from the very diversity of approaches within it all addressed to the central topic Ethics in Education ,1988 My Perfect Parents Michael Leppan,2019-10-07 This book shows you how to build a fantastic character in your millennial children and teenagers Written exclusively by a millennial teen You will discover Parents' Magazine & Better Homemaking ,1949 America s 1 family magazine
