to affirm the unity of the human being This debate is frequently interpreted as a conflict between the new philosophy conveyed by the rediscovered works of Aristotle and his followers and doctrinal requirements especially the belief in the soul's immortality However a thorough examination of Parisian texts written between approximately 1150 and 1260 leads to surprising conclusions In The Soul Body Problem at Paris ca 1200 1250 the study and edition of some little known texts of Hugh of St Cher and his contemporaries ranging from Gilbert of Poitiers to Thomas Aquinas reveals an extremely rich and colorful picture of the Parisian anthropological debate of the time This book also offers an opportunity to reconsider some received views concerning medieval philosophy such as the conviction that the notion of person did not play any major role in the anthropological controversies
