Reading Style A Life In Sentences:

Reading Style Jenny Davidson, 2014-06-24 A professor critic and insatiable reader Jenny Davidson investigates the passions that drive us to fall in love with certain sentences over others and the larger implications of our relationship with writing style At once playful and serious immersive and analytic her book shows how style elicits particular kinds of moral judgments and subjective preferences that turn reading into a highly personal and political act Melding her experiences as reader and critic Davidson opens new vistas onto works by Jane Austen Henry James Marcel Proust and Thomas Pynchon adds richer dimension to critiques of W G Sebald Alan Hollinghurst Thomas Bernhard and Karl Ove Knausgaard and allows for a sophisticated appreciation of popular fictions by Stephen King Neil Gaiman Lionel Shriver George Pelecanos and Helen DeWitt She privileges diction syntax point of view and structure over plot and character identifying the intimate mechanics that draw us in to literature s sensual frameworks and move us to feel identify and relate Davidson concludes with a reading list of her favorite titles so others can share in her literary adventures and get to know better the imprint of her own reading style

Crises of the Sentence Jan Mieszkowski, 2019-04-02 There are few forms in which so much authority has been invested with so little reflection as the sentence Though a fundamental unit of discourse it has rarely been an explicit object of inquiry often taking a back seat to concepts such as the word trope line or stanza To understand what is at stake in thinking or not thinking about the sentence Jan Mieszkowski looks at the difficulties confronting nineteenth and twentieth century authors when they try to explain what a sentence is and what it can do From Romantic debates about the power of the stand alone sentence to the realist obsession with precision and revision to modernist experiments with ungovernable forms Mieszkowski explores the hidden allegiances behind our ever changing stylistic ideals By showing how an investment in superior writing has always been an ethical and a political as well as an aesthetic commitment Crises of the Sentence offers a new perspective on our love hate relationship with this fundamental compositional category

Spontaneity and Form in Modern Prose Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2022-12-01. This study analyzes post-Romantic prose whose authors in terms of race, gender, class, nationality, and more occupy a range of subject positions. Unlike poetry, modern literary prose has no rhetorical repertoire or structure beyond those of grammar that one could tabulate. As a result, it becomes a zone of experimentation and spontaneous creativity as well as a means to investigate the concept of spontaneity understood as post-secular. Heeding separate histories and peculiar particularities, this volume reveals writers discovering their ideas as they go in prose whose sound, rhythm, syntax, and imagery escapes the preordained. There are chapters on William Hazlitt, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Walt Whitman and Hindu philosophy. Gerard Manley Hopkins, Herman Melville, D. H. Lawrence, and Saul Bellow, Virginia Woolf, and Marion Milner, Gwendolyn Brooks, Adil Jussawalla, and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. These writers are intelligently vexed by two transitions: first, the movement from impulse into form, and second, the overlap between literary forms and social forms. They explore the yearning for renovated societies which expressive of our deepest selves would also enable those selves in times of panicked fragmentation, moral relativism, and communication imperiled to interact as citizens.
