Personal Timeline Projects For 2nd Grade Students:

The Teaching American History Project Rachel G. Ragland, Kelly A. Woestman, 2010-05-26 The premise of the Teaching American History TAH project a discretionary grant program funded under the U S Department of Education s Elementary and Secondary Education Act is that in order to teach history better teachers need to know more history Unique among professional development programs in emphasizing specific content to be taught over a particular pedagogical approach TAH grants assist schools in implementing scientifically based research methods for improving the quality of instruction professional development and teacher education in American history Illustrating the diversity of these programs as they have been implemented in local education agencies throughout the nation this collection of essays and research reports from TAH participants provides models for historians teachers teacher educators and others interested in the teaching and learning of American History and presents examples of lessons learned from a cross section of TAH projects Each chapter presents a narrative of innovation documenting collaboration between classroom community and the academy that gives immediate and obvious relevance to the teaching and learning process of American history By sharing these narratives this book expands the impact of emerging practices from individual TAH projects to reach a larger audience across the nation Using Physical Activity and Sport to Teach Personal and Social Responsibility Doris L. Watson, Brian D. Clocksin, 2012-12-27 Using Physical Activity and Sport to Teach Personal and Social Responsibility shows you how to implement a character education program in your school or community organization Authors Watson and Clocksin offer an ideal companion text to Don Hellison s classic Teaching Personal and Social Responsibility Through Physical Activity In this text Watson and Clocksin provide the practical tools for applying Hellison s Teaching Personal and Social Responsibility TPSR model to sport and fitness activities You ll find samples of units lessons and assessments incorporating the TPSR model in teaching basketball golf soccer volleyball team handball tennis yoga fitness and adventure education An excellent text for the novice teacher Using Physical Activity and Sport to Teach Personal and Social Responsibility also offers information and techniques on facilitating youth development in a variety of movement settings and with diverse populations This text begins with an introduction to the TPSR model that prepares you for practical applications to follow Part I of the text presents the history and evolution of the TPSR model It also discusses how TPSR meets current National Association for Sport and Physical Education NASPE standards for physical education instruction Next you ll find an examination of current research on motivating students in a physical activity context creating positive learning climates and facilitating student centered learning Part I concludes with a look at current literature demonstrating the effect of the TPSR model in the sport and physical activity setting Part II centers on methods for teaching life skills and values through nine sports and physical activities Each of the nine chapters is organized using the TPSR lesson plan format awareness talk lesson focus group meeting and reflection in connection to each developmental stage 1 2 and 3 It includes a summary and recommendations for additional readings For each sport or physical activity you ll find suggested activities for teaching sport skills and TPSR skills in tandem examples of guided questions and information on skill assessments Each chapter includes easy to reference tables examining possible instructional strategies to use such as command reciprocal inclusion and self check teaching considerations for each strategy and how each strategy can guide your students in accomplishing TPSR goals at their developmental level Part III of this resource includes a chapter featuring profiles of teachers and youth workers who are using the TPSR model effectively The book concludes with a look at how teaching personal and social responsibility through sport can support the creation of young leaders in school and community settings Using Physical Activity and Sport to Teach Personal and Social Responsibility offers undergraduates teachers and youth workers a bridge to connect Hellison s TPSR model to their own practices More than a text on physical education or sport instruction this book can help you turn sport and physical activity into opportunities to create deeper more positive connections with students and nurture their personal and social growth Primary Education ,1926 Resources in Education ,1999 Innovative Voices in Education Eileen Gale Kugler,2012-01-31 Diverse schools offer enriched academic and social environments as students and families of different backgrounds and experiences provide a vibrant mosaic of insights perspectives and skills To take advantage of the unique opportunities that diversity brings schools must value and effectively connect with students and families of all backgrounds Committed educators are taking on this challenge with gusto engaging their diverse communities on a daily basis This book highlights stories from around the world as innovative teachers educational leaders and community activists passionately share personal accounts of their successes challenges and lessons learned These are unsung heroes doing vital work each day with little attention beyond the appreciation of their own school communities The 17 chapters each by different authors with unique experiences provide insights strategies and new tools that will be of value to anyone who is concerned about improving education for all These diverse innovative voices will inform engage and most of all inspire you
