

Pedigree Charts

Name: _____

A pedigree for any family, be it dogs, cats or humans, shows the pattern of inheritance in a family for a specific trait. Males are shown as squares and females are shown as circles. Each generation is shown as a Roman numeral and each person in a generation is numbered. The trait that is being expressed is shown as a shaded shape.

Observe the pedigree. Number the generations and each person on the pedigree.

In this family, how many individuals show the trait? _____

Which males show the trait? (generation, number)

Determining genotypes

Follow along in the presentation so you can figure this out. N = normal feet, n = webbed feet. Write down the genotypes of each individual under him/her.

The Mind of God and the Works of Man Edward Craig,1996 What is the connection between philosophy as studied in universities and those general views of man and reality which are commonly considered philosophy Through his attempt to rediscover this connection Craig offers a view of philosophy and its history since the early 17th century Craig discusses the two contrary visions of man s essential nature that dominated this period one portraying man as made in the image of God and required to resemble him as closely as possible the other depicting man as the autonomous creator of his own environment and values and uses this context to clarify previously opaque textual detail Illustrating how general concepts embodied by philosophical thought can be embodied in other media especially literary the author brings together disparate disciplines he also reveals striking similarities between Anglo American and certain 20th century continental European lines of thought

The Least Examined Branch Richard W. Bauman,Tsvi Kahana,2006-07-31 Unlike most works in constitutional theory which focus on the role of the courts this book addresses the role of legislatures in a regime of constitutional democracy Bringing together some of the world s leading constitutional scholars and political scientists the book addresses legislatures in democratic theory legislating and deliberating in the constitutional state constitution making by legislatures legislative and popular constitutionalism and the dialogic role of legislatures both domestically with other institutions and internationally with other legislatures The book offers theoretical perspectives as well as case studies of several types of legislation from the United States and Canada It also addresses the role of legislatures both under the Westminster model and under a separation of powers system
