Arthurian Legends on Film and Television Bert Olton, 2008-10-23 The Arthurian legends are a crucial part of Western culture. With their enduring themes, archetypal characters, and complex plots, it is not surprising that the stories of Camelot should find their way into films and television programs. From the moody Excalibur to the looney Knighty Knight Bugs, more than 250 entries give complete credits, synopses, and analyses. Included are works based solely on Arthur and his literary origins and works that feature other figures like Galahad, Percival, and the operatic favorites Tristan and Isolde. Also included are animated films, parodies like Monty Python's films like Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade with Arthurian themes, and television series with Arthurian episodes such as Babylon 5 and MacGyver. Operatic and dramatic works recorded for film and television like Camelot are also covered. Appendices, bibliography, and index.

So You Want to Sing Gospel Trineice Robinson-Martin, 2016-11-29 There are few works in existence that teach gospel singing, and even fewer that focus on what gospel soloists need to know. In So You Want to Sing Gospel, Trineice Robinson Martin offers the first resource to help individual gospel singers at all levels make the most of their primary instrument: their voice. Robinson Martin gathers together key information on gospel music history, vocal pedagogy, musical style, and performance, and its place in music ministry. So You Want to Sing Gospel covers such vital matters as historical, cultural, and spiritual perspectives on the gospel music tradition; training one's voice; understanding the dynamic of sound production; grasping gospel style; and bringing together vocal performance with ministerial imperatives. She also includes in her discussion such matters as voice type, repertoire selection, and gospel sub-genres. Additional chapters by Scott McCoy and Wendy LeBorgne and Matthew Edwards address universal questions of voice science and pedagogy, vocal health, and audio enhancement technology. The So You Want to Sing series is produced in partnership with the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Like all books in the series, So You Want to Sing Gospel features online supplemental material on the NATS website. Please visit www.nats.org to access style-specific exercises, audio, and video files, and additional resources.
