Red Desert Annie Proulx, 2012-07-25 A photographic and multidisciplinary study of one of America's last undeveloped and most endangered landscapes edited by a Pulitzer Prize winning author A vast expanse of rock formations sand dunes and sagebrush in central and southwest Wyoming the little known Red Desert is one of the last undeveloped landscapes in the United States as well as one of the most endangered It is a last refuge for many species of wildlife Sitting atop one of North America's largest untapped reservoirs of natural gas the Red Desert is a magnet for energy producers who are damaging its complex and fragile ecosystem in a headlong race to open a new domestic source of energy and reap the profits To capture and preserve what makes the Red Desert both valuable and scientifically and historically interesting writer Annie Proulx and photographer Martin Stupich enlisted a team of scientists and scholars to join them in exploring the Red Desert through many disciplines geology hydrology paleontology ornithology zoology entomology botany climatology anthropology archaeology sociology and history Their essays reveal many fascinating often previously unknown facts about the Red Desert everything from the rich pocket habitats that support an amazing diversity of life to engrossing stories of the transcontinental migrations that began in prehistory and continue today on I 80 which bisects the Red Desert Complemented by Martin Stupich's photo essay which portrays both the beauty and the devastation that characterize the region today Red Desert bears eloquent witness to a unique landscape in its final years as a wild place Red Desert, 2013 Description Movie Press Kits

Zen of the Plains Tyra A. Olstad, 2014-05-15 Although spare sweeping landscapes may appear empty plains and prairies afford a rich unique aesthetic experience one of quiet sunrises and dramatic storms hidden treasures and abundant wildlife infinite horizons and omnipresent wind all worthy of contemplation and celebration In this series of narratives photographs and hand drawn maps Tyra Olstad blends scholarly research with first hand observation to explore topics such as wildness and wilderness travel and tourism preservation and conservation expectations and acceptance and even dreams and reality in the context of parks prairies and wild open places In so doing she invites readers to reconsider the meaning of emptiness and ask larger deeper questions such as how do people experience the world How do we shape places and how do places shape us Above all what does it mean to experience that exhilarating effect known as Zen of the plains Mountains and Plains Dennis H. Knight, George P. Jones, William A. Reiners, William H. Romme, 2014-01-01 Many changes some discouraging others hopeful have occurred in the Rocky Mountain region since the first edition of this widely acclaimed book was published Wildlife habitat has become more fragmented once abundant sage grouse are now scarce and forest fires occur more frequently At the same time wolves have been successfully reintroduced and new approaches to conservation have been adopted For this updated and expanded Second Edition the authors provide a highly readable synthesis of research undertaken in the past two decades and address two important questions How can ecosystems be used so that future generations benefit from them as we have How can we anticipate and adapt to climate changes while conserving biological diversity The Lost Frontier Mark Asquith, 2014-06-19 Annie Proulx is one of the most provocative and stylistically innovative writers in America today She is at her best in the short story format and the best of these are to be found in her Wyoming trilogy in which she turns her eye on America's West both past and present Yet despite the vast amount of print expended reviewing her books there has been nothing published on the Wyoming Stories The Lost Frontier fills this critical void by offering a detailed examination of the key stories in the trilogy Close Range 1999 Bad Dirt 2004 Fine Just the Way it Is 2008 The chapters are arranged according to western archetypes the Pioneer Rancher Cowboy Indian and arguably the most important character of them all in Proulx's fiction Landscape The Lost Frontier offers students a clear sense of the novelist's early life and work her stylistic influences and the characteristics of her fiction and an understanding of where the Wyoming Stories and Annie Proulx's work as a whole fits into traditional and contemporary writing about the American West Lost in the New West Mark Asquith, 2021-10-07 Lost in the New West investigates a group of writers John Williams Cormac McCarthy Annie Proulx and Thomas McGuane who have sought to explore the tensions inherent to the Western where the distinctions between old and new myth and reality authenticity and sentimentality are frequently blurred Collectively these authors demonstrate a deep seated attachment to the landscape people and values of the West and offer a critical appraisal of the dialogue between the contemporary West and its legacy Mark Asquith draws attention to the idealistic young men at the center of such works as Williams's Butcher's Crossing 1960 McCarthy's Blood Meridian 1985 and Border Trilogy Proulx's Wyoming stories and McGuane's Deadrock novels For each writer these characters struggle to come to terms with the difference between the suspect mythology of the West that shapes their identity and the reality that surrounds them They are in short lost in the new West Prisoners of the Red Desert Rupert Stanley Gwathkin-Williams (Captain.), 1923 Rendering Nature Marguerite S. The Selected Works of T. S. Spivet Reif Larsen, 2010-04-27 A brilliant boundary leaping debut novel tracing twelve year old genius map maker T S Spivet s attempts to understand the ways of the world When twelve year old genius cartographer T S Spivet receives an unexpected phone call from the Smithsonian announcing he has won the prestigious Baird Award life as normal if you consider mapping family dinner table conversation normal is interrupted and a wild cross country adventure begins taking T S from his family ranch just north of Divide Montana to the museum s hallowed halls T S sets out alone leaving before dawn with a plan to hop a freight train and hobo east Once aboard his adventures step into high gear and he meticulously maps charts and illustrates his exploits documenting mythical wormholes in the Midwest the urban phenomenon of rims and the pleasures of McDonald s among other things We come to see the world through T S s eyes and in his thorough investigation of the outside world he also reveals himself As he travels away from the ranch and his family we learn how the journey also brings him closer to home A secret family history found within his luggage tells the story of T S s ancestors and their long ago passage west offering profound insight into the family he left behind and his role within it As T S reads he discovers the sometimes shadowy boundary between fact and fiction and realizes that for all his analytical rigor the world around him is a mystery All that he has learned is tested when he arrives at the capital to claim his prize and is welcomed into science s inner circle For all its shine fame seems more highly valued than ideas in this new world and friends are hard to find T S s trip begins at the Copper Top Ranch and the last known place he stands is Washington D C but his journey s movement is far harder to track How do you map the delicate lessons learned about family and self How do you depict how it feels to first venture out on your own Is there a definitive way to communicate the ebbs and tides of heartbreak loss loneliness love These are the questions that strike at the core of this very special debut Now a major motion picture directed by Jean Pierre Jeunet and starring Kyle Catlett and Helena Bonham Carter The Cinema of Economic Miracles

Angelo Restivo, 2002-02-26 A sophisticated theoretical treatment of post war Italian Cinema The Authorship of Place

Dennis Lo, 2020-09-14 The Authorship of Place is the first monograph dedicated to the study of the politics history aesthetics and practices of location shooting for Taiwanese Mainland Chinese and coproduced art cinemas shot in rural communities since the late 1970s Dennis Lo argues that rural location shooting beyond serving aesthetic and technical needs constitutes practices of cultural survival in a region beset with disruptive and disorienting social changes including rapid urbanization geopolitical shifts and ecological crises In response to these social changes auteurs like Hou Xiaoxian Jia Zhangke Chen Kaige and Li Xing engaged in location shooting to transform sites of film production into symbolically meaningful places of collective memories and aspirations These production practices ultimately enabled auteurs to experiment with imagining Taiwanese Mainland Chinese and cross strait communities in novel and contentious ways Deftly guiding readers on a cross strait tour of prominent shooting locations for the New Chinese Cinemas this book shows how auteurs sought out their disappearing cultural heritage by reenacting lived experiences of nation building homecoming and cultural salvage while shooting on location This was an especially daunting task when auteurs encountered the shooting locations as spaces of unresolved historical social and geopolitical contestations tensions which were only intensified by the impact of filmmaking on rural communities This book demonstrates how these complex circumstances surrounding location shooting were pivotal in shaping both representations of the rural on screen as well as the production communities institutions and industries off screen Informed by cutting edge perspectives in cultural geography and media anthropology The Authorship of Place both revises Chinese language film history and theorizes groundbreaking approaches for investigating the cultural politics of film authorship and production This extraordinary book discusses the uses of location shooting in films by contemporary Taiwanese and Mainland Chinese directors ranging from Li Xing to Jia Zhangke It highlights the ways in which place memory and identity stances respond to social changes and geopolitical disparities In a world full of uncertainty the argument about the imaginary homeland as an experienced cinematic reality only renders it more urgent and universally relatable Ping hui Liao University of California San Diego The Authorship of Place is certainly a welcome intervention into the study of Chinese cinemas and their auteurs that further contributes to the wider study of location shooting as well as cultural geographies and place based imaginaries of film It is rare to find a book dealing with space place in and around cinema that is this inventive and nuanced in its methodologies Stephanie DeBoer Indiana University

Although regarded as a single community of Islamists Islamic political movements utilise vastly different means to pursue their goals This book examines why some Islamic movements facing the same socio political structures pursue different political paths while their counterparts in diverse contexts make similar political choices Based on qualitative fieldwork involving personal interviews with Islamic politicians journalists and ideologues conducted both before and after the Arab Spring author Esen KirdiAY draws close comparisons between six Islamic movements in Jordan Morocco and Turkey She analyses how some Islamic movements decide to form a political party to run in elections while their counterparts in the same country reject doing so and instead engage in political activism as a social movement through informal channels More broadly the study demonstrates the role of internal factors ideological priorities and organisational needs in explaining differentiation within Islamic political movements and discusses its effects on democratisation Red Line Charles Bowden,2018-04-04 The author is joined by a retired narcotics cop as they investigate the assassination of a drug dealer and hit man outside Tucson Arizona One of Charles Bowden s earliest books Red Line powerfully conveys a desert civilization careening over the edge and decaying at its center Bowden s quest for the literal and figurative truth behind the assassination of a murderous border town drug dealer becomes a meditation on the glories of the desert landscape the squalors of the society that threatens it and the contradictions inherent in trying to save it At its best Red Line can read like an original synthesis of Peter Matthiessen and William Burroughs A brave and interesting book David Rieff Los Angeles Times Book Review Charles Bowden s Red Line is a look at America through the window of the southwest His vision is as nasty peculiar brutal as it is intriguing and perhaps accurate Bowden offers consciousness rather than consolation but in order to do anything about our nightmares we must take a cold look and Red Line casts the coldest eye in recent memory Jim Harrison The Southwest as portrayed in this Kerouac esque odyssey betokening the death of the American frontier spirit is a landscape of broken dreams violence uprooted lives and fallen idols Miles distant from tourist poster images of the Sunbelt this vista of narrow greed diminished expectations and despoilation of nature sizzles with the harsh unrelenting glare of a hyperrealist painting Publishers Weekly
