

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

A Global Political Economy of Democratisation Alison J. Ayers,2018-02-13 The late twentieth century is often portrayed as an Age of Democratisation with democracy heralded as the best of all political systems Yet democracy has multiple meanings values and significances The start of the twenty first century has witnessed a massive revival of interest in the meaning and role of democracy not least as democracy understood in one highly particular sense has been increasingly recognised to be in crisis This book presents these deliberations in a new light by moving beyond the concept of the sovereign state as the dominant framework of enquiry and by rejecting the primacy of the state and the categorical separation of the domestic and the international Instead Ayers elaborates an account of democratisation through the global political economy encompassing a trenchant critique of mainstream democracy promotion in theory and practice and opening up possibilities for different histories of democratisation autonomous of the Western liberal and neoliberal project This innovative work will prove useful to scholars and students in the fields of Politics Political Economy International Relations Development African Studies History Geography and Sociology

Foreign Aid and Emerging Powers Iain Watson, 2014-07-11 Current debates on emerging powers as foreign aid donors often fail to examine the myriad geopolitical geoeconomic and geocultural tensions that influence policies of Official Development Assistance ODA This book advocates a regional geopolitical approach to explaining donor donor relationships and provides a multidisciplinary critical assessment of the contemporary debates on emerging powers and foreign aid bringing together economic and geopolitical approaches in the light of the 2015 completion of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs Moving away from established debates assessing the advantages and disadvantages of foreign aid this book challenges the current geopolitical assumptions of the emerging powers concerning issues such as south south solidarity shared development experience and multipolarity It analyses how donor governments sell aid to recipients through enabling different cultural assumptions and soft power narratives of national identity and provides empirical evidence on agendas such as aid effectiveness aid for trade public private partnerships and green growth aid The book examines the role of and relationships between the leading traditional and emerging power Asian donors specifically and explores the different and contested perspectives and patterns of ODA policy through an alternative account of emerging power foreign aid to leading African and Asian recipients This book provides a valuable resource for postgraduate students and practitioners across disciplines such as development economics and geopolitics of development uniquely approaching the debate from the perspective of emerging powers and donors

The segregated city: A Nordic overview Moa Tunström, Shinan Wang, 2019-03-28 Issues related to segregation and integration are major responsibilities and challenges for cities and a segregated urban environment can be understood as a symptom of wider social injustices In this brief overview of current research on residential segregation the focus is on structural reasons to segregation This means that it is planning policies and tendencies in socio economic development that are discussed rather than specific social integration measures and projects But there is an obvious arena where these two approaches to segregation meet and that is in the local community and its spaces for social interaction This is important to keep in mind that the integrated city is both a result of strategies and initiatives on a micro scale in the neighbourhood and between individuals and initiatives and development on a macro scale This report is part of a theme on segregation within the Nordic collaboration programme for effective integration and inclusion of refugees and immigrants in the Nordic countries Read more at www.integrationnorden.org
