Smart Self-publishing Linda Grotke Salisbury, Jim Salisbury, 2003

"Good-bye, Notre Dame" John H. Morgan, 1998 This book is a rather personal history of an academic publishing house I chose to call Three Acorns Press in the narrative I did this to protect nearly 500 authors and the publishing house itself Not that what I had to say was scandalous or problematic but rather I wanted to keep personalities out of this story It is not an autobiographical study of the author per se and it is hopefully not the end of the publishing house which has over one hundred and twenty five titles in print My personal history is somewhat more complicated and the story of this publishing house has not yet ended The following is however my own recollections of how I began this publishing house and how and why it has grown to be a house of reputation the winner of the American Library Association Academic Book of the Year award and cited three times by the Ford Foundation and the National Research Council as a leader in the field I did not set out from school to be a publisher Though I have always been a lover of books I never dreamed of actually publishing them But a publisher is what I am and this is my story of how it all came about The New Medium of Print Frank Cost,2005

Print is so familiar that it remains invisible to the average person Frank Cost associate dean of the College of Imaging Arts and Sciences at Rochester Institute of Technology and co director of the RIT Printing Industry Center has often wished for a small fun to read book to give to people who were thinking about the world of print for the first time Most of the available introductory books concentrate heavily on the technology but say little about how people actually use print let alone why The New Medium of Print is a new kind of book it provides an introduction to the underlying systems for the creation and distribution of print as well as an exploration of its many and varied contemporary uses This book is the first in the Printing Industry Center Series a co publication of RIT Cary Graphic Arts Press and RIT Printing Industry Center
