The War Cry, 1972 History of the South Georgia Conference of the United Methodist Church: 1866-2018 Anne Packard, 2018-10-16. The South Georgia Conference created in 1866 by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South began at a time of great change in the region. This updated edition of the History of the South Georgia Conference 1866-2018 traces the roots of Georgia Methodism from John Wesley's residence in Savannah in 1736 through present day. The subsequent struggles, triumphs, decisions, and concerns can all be found within these pages. The South Georgia Conference's come alive with photos and histories documented by each church historian and now compiled within this second edition of History. The Archives and History Committee of the South Georgia Conference of the United Methodist Church collaborated and edited this edition. Anne Packard, Curator of the Moore Methodist Museum and Archivist for the conference, working with the Assistant Curators Cindy Angelich and Marlee Pack, are indebted to both the committee and church historians for their time and energy in creating this book.

The Minister's Manual for 1990 (Doran's) James W. Cox, 1989-08 The International Pentecostal Holiness Advocate, 1987 Congressional Record United States Congress, 1993 El Tigre News, 2005 Church at Church Ronald Andrew Rienstra, 2022-01-01. Jean Jacques von Allmen's work was animated by three key insights: the Church both learns and becomes what it truly is when it gathers to worship; worship tells the story of God's salvation history and invites God's people into it; and by doing so, the church offers the world both a stern warning and a hopeful promise. The Swiss Reformed pastor and professor is among the most admired liturgical theologians of the twentieth century, but his work is largely and lamentably unknown to most worship leaders. In Church at Church, Ron Rienstra provides an introduction to this important thinker. He offers methodological and biographical context and then explores von Allmen's most generative insights concerning the church as it engages in its most foundational activity: worship. Viewed through the lens of the Nicene marks, Rienstra's exploration yields the outlines of a liturgical ecclesiology, a way to help the church think more deeply about its identity and to help its leaders shape the worship they prepare and lead today.

Mobilizing for the Common Good Peter Slade, Charles Marsh, Peter Goodwin Heltzel, 2013-07-11. Born into a sharecropping family in New Hebron, Mississippi, in 1930 and only receiving a third-grade education, John M. Perkins has been a pioneering prophetic African American voice for reconciliation and social justice to America's white evangelical churches. Often an unwelcome voice and always a passionate provocative clarion, Perkins persisted for forty years in bringing about the formation of the Christian Community Development Association, a large network of evangelical churches and community organizations working in America's poorest communities and inspired the emerging generation of young evangelicals concerned with releasing the Church from its cultural captivity and oppressive materialism John M Perkins has received surprisingly little attention from historians of modern American religious history and theologians Mobilizing for the Common Good is an exploration of his theological significance With contributions from theologians historians and activists this book contends that Perkins ushered in a paradigm shift in twentieth century evangelical theology that continues to influence Christian community development projects and social justice activists today

Just Spirituality Mae Elise Cannon, 2013-01-25 Mae Elise Cannon opens the annals of activist history to see if there is a correlation between great acts of compassion and advocacy and great depths of prayer Looking at the lives of Mother Teresa Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Luther King Jr and others Cannon finds a depth of spiritual practice at the root of courageous social action
