Family Migration and the Path to an Occupation Chieh Hsu, 2020-06-04 This book sheds light on the invisible early post arrival period of female family migrants traditionally considered to be low skilled or professionally quiescent With attention to the experiences of Chinese and Taiwanese women married to German men it examines the ways in which the private sphere marked by intermarriage couple dynamics and native foreigner relations constitutes the main locus of women s socialization in the host country as interactions with their intimate partners in the family realm shape both their self conceptions and their employment intentions Based on interviews with migrant women and their spouses the author outlines the subject positions that characterize female migrants attitudes to external constructs and entering the labor market showing that female family migrants frequently take on family migrant and wife roles that permeate intimate relationships and impede employment intentions but also often strive to realign with their pre departure independent selves and thus regain agency A study of gender dynamics and labor market entry among newly arrived female migrants this volume will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in gender migration and work

Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience

The Routledge Companion to Innovation Management Jin Chen, Alexander Brem, Eric Viardot, Poh Kam Wong, 2019-02-14 Innovation contributes to corporate competitiveness economic performance and environmental sustainability In the Internet era innovation intelligence is transferred across borders and languages at an unprecedented rate yet the ability to benefit from it seems to become more divergent among different corporations and countries How much an organization can benefit from innovation largely depends on how well innovation is managed in it Thus there is a discernible increase in interest in the study of innovation management This handbook provides a comprehensive guide to this subject The handbook introduces the basic framework of innovation and innovation management It also presents innovation management from the perspectives of strategy organization and resource as well as institution and culture The book s comprehensive coverage on all areas of innovation management makes this a very useful reference for anyone interested in the subject Chapter 5 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781315276670>

New Practices of Comparison, Quantification and Expertise in Education Christina Elde Mølsted, Daniel Pettersson, 2019-03-29 New Practices of Comparison Quantification and Expertise in Education discusses contemporary trends and activities related to comparisons and quantifications It aims to help scholars to conduct empirically based research on how comparisons and quantifications are instituted in practice at different levels in the educational system The book furthers discussions on policy by looking at the kinds of activities that comparisons and quantifications lead to at an international regional and national level Most of the book s chapters are based on empirical research conducted in different research projects The book thus brings all these projects together and discusses them as activities promoted by the reasoning of comparisons and quantifications New Practices of Comparison Quantification and Expertise in Education will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of comparative education curriculum research and policy studies It will also appeal to those in the fields of teacher education including student teachers Job Market Signaling in Public Administration Nico Gießmann,2024-10-30 The public sector urgently needs more personnel and must actively engage with the labor market to distinguish itself from the private sector Scholars recommend developing a strong public service brand and using sector specific motives to attract individuals who prefer public sector employment However public specific signaling often fails to attract a diverse range of applicants This book examines the signaling strategies in public and private job advertisements and explores how the public sector can emulate private sector appeal while balancing personnel policy trade offs involved with this manipulation A linguistic analysis of 5 000 public and private job advertisements was performed to reveal significant sectoral differences in word choice and content emphasis Further a preregistered online survey experiment measured the intention to apply to job advertisements with varying signaling intensities Therefore this book enhances the understanding of recruitment messaging and strategies to bridge public private sector differences
