Quiz #1

Communication –

Therapeutic Communication

- Therapeutic communication is at the core of the helping-healing relationship
- The patient nurse communication is an intimate moment of connection between a nurse and patient that makes all the difference in quality of care
- Nurse is there to reduce anxiety by letting patient know what to expect
 - Communication is at the center
 - We want patients to feel comfortable enough to be able to voice their concern and issues
- Nurses need to prevent and promote and reduce anxiety
- Nurses need to intervene and promote well-being of patient Active Listening

- Being attentive to what a patient is saying both verbally and nonverbally
- Active learning facilitates patient communication acceptance
- It enhances trust because you communicate acceptance and respect for a patient Sharing Observations

- Nurses make observations by commenting on how the other person looks, sounds or acts
- Stating observations often help a patient communicate without the need for extensive questioning, focusing, or clarification
- Differs from making

assumptions Empathy/Acceptance

- Empathy is the ability to understand and accept another person's reality, accurately perceive feelings, and communicate this understanding to others
- To convey empathy, accurately perceive the patient's situation, communicate that understanding to the patient and act on your understanding to help them
- To express empathy, you reflect that you understand and feel the other person's communication
- Understanding and caring through open-ended questions Using Touch

- Touch is one of the most potent forms of communication
- Touch is used during procedures and assessments or to convey emotion
- Need to be sensitive to other's reactions to touch and use it wisely
 - Watch face, must be aware if patient is uncomfortable Using Silence

- Most people have a natural tendency to fill empty spaces with words, but sometimes these spaces allow time for a nurse and patient to observe one another and consider what has been communicated
- Silence allows a patient to think and gain insight
- It's useful when people are confronted with decisions that require much thought Clarifying

- To check whether understanding is accurate, restate an unclear or ambiguous message to clarify the sending's meaning
- Taking the key points out of a long story
- Restating message "what I'm hearing is..."
