Standards & Outcomes	GOLD Objective 38a: During large group: If a child is talking and answering questions about the story or pictures assess them as a 4. If they are identifying story related events, assess them as a 5. GOLD Objective 38c: While the children are working in the perfect square center, observe how they are using the paper. Are they tearing it apart or are they purposefully snipping it with scissors? If they are tearing it, it would be assessed as a 4. Snipping it would be assessed as a 5. Using a correct scissor grip and turning the paper with their other hand will be assessed as an 8. GOLD Objective 38b: If a child is able to independently reconstruct the story using pictures, text, and prompts then assess them as an 8.
Assessment Opportunities	GOLD Objective 21b: Understands shapes Assess a 2 for children who can match two shapes. Assess a 4 for children who can identify a few basic shapes. Assess a 6 for children who can describe basic two and three dimensional shapes even when presented in a new orientation. Assess an 8 to children who can show that shapes retain the same even in different orientations or who can combine more than one piece to create a different shape.

Educational Technology in the Classroom Patricia Ann Brock, 1994

Transformative Social and Emotional Learning Madara Soutter, Alessandra E. Ward, Chu N. Ly, 2025 Transformative social and emotional learning (TSEL) is a way of teaching that sees social and emotional learning and social justice as inextricably linked This practical guide will support teachers in centering TSEL in their work and in cultivating a commitment to justice with young children in developmentally appropriate ways The authors provide stories, perspectives, and concrete tools including planning resources for teachers, tips on integrating TSEL into different content areas, research on how to foster positive racial identity development, support for integrating transformative play into the classroom, a roadmap for teacher educators, and advice on how to navigate barriers to doing this work The text provides specific examples that demonstrate how to implement complex concepts in accessible ways Chapters are designed to be practical, though not overly prescriptive, so teachers can readily adapt takeaways to their own practice

Book Features: Social and emotional learning grounded in equity and social justice goals; Social and emotional learning is so important in all classrooms; This book shows that it must be asset-based, contextualized in sociocultural awareness grounded in critical pedagogies, and approached with an equity and social justice lens; Concrete tools for a complex concept; TSEL as a concept can be difficult to access for classroom teachers who are already creating so much content; This book provides concrete tools and specific examples of how to implement TSEL without oversimplifying this work; A foundation of social justice for young children; Social justice work has traditionally focused more on adolescents; This book provides tools for building a developmentally appropriate foundation for doing this work with younger changemakers, pre-K to grade 6; This important resource is for every educator invested in carrying out social and emotional learning that challenges injustice and honors all of the different identities that our students hold; Scott Seider, professor, Boston College
