Setting the Scene	All the important information and lots of background information is given in a way that interests the reader.	The information written explains in detail who, what, where, when and why so the reader understands.	The setting includes all the information about who, what, where, when and why.	Tr ab on
Events	Events are included in chronological order that add interest and impact. The writing interests the reader because it includes personal comments.	Events are retold in time order and the recount includes more detailed information about the more interesting events.	Events are retold in time order and equal amount is written for each event.	Ev on th
Language	The writing has different sentence openings, different sentence lengths and uses lots of different linking words. It has lots of powerful adjectives and adverbs.	The recount is written in the past tense, with powerful adjectives, verbs (like I glimpsed) and connectives like eventually , meanwhile ...	The recount is written in the past tense and uses some linking words like first , later , soon , finally . The writing has some adjectives and action verbs.	Tr po lin —
Closing Statement	The closing statement is also a good summary of parts of the recount and ends the recount well.	The closing statement is detailed and tries to review what has been written in the recount.	An ending of the recount is written. It does not include a lot of detail, but does include some reviewing of the events.	Tr ov ha
Punctuation	Full stops, capital letters, commas, exclamation marks and question marks are all used and are all in the correct places. Reported speech may be used.	Full stops, capital letters, commas, exclamation marks and question marks are used. Most are in the right place.	Full stops, capital letters and exclamation marks are used although they may not be in the right place. A few may be missing.	Fu ha th
