Pre-primary Education in Nigeria B. O. Igboabuchi, Eze Denco, 1998      Northern Nigeria Teacher Education Project Papers, 1963      The Government and Administration of Africa, 1880-1939 Vol 3 Casper Anderson, 2017-07-05 This collection makes available rare sources on the aims functions and effects of British administration in Africa Topics examined include land and urban administration law and jurisprudence taxation and administration of natural resources      The Accidental Public Servant Nasir Ahmed El-Rufai, 2013-05-19 This is a story of Nigeria told from the inside After a successful career in the private sector Nasir El Rufai rose to the top ranks of Nigeria's political hierarchy serving first as the privatization czar at the Bureau for Public Enterprises and then as Minister of the Federal Capital Territory of Abuja under former President Olesegun Obasanjo In this tell all memoir El Rufai reflects on a life in public service to Nigeria the enormous challenges faced by the country and what can be done while calling on a new generation of leaders to take the country back from the brink of destruction The shocking revelations disclosed by El Rufai about the formation of the current leadership and the actions of prominent statesmen make this memoir required reading for anyone seeking to understand the dynamics of power politics in Africa's most populous nation      Researching and Teaching Reading Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, 2015-08-20 Many agree that engaging in research is what makes a teacher's professional development sustainable and Researching and Teaching Reading studies the ways in which research and teaching are entwined both within and beyond the classroom Gabrielle Cliff Hodges encourages readers to deepen their understanding of reading through high quality teaching and research activities designed to engage young learners and generate rich research data in the expectation that teachers will wish to adapt or develop them further within their own contexts The author explores how teachers research and critical reading can further develop their understanding of their students reading practices and argues that innovative approaches to teaching integrated with research enable English teachers to re construct ideas and change how reading is taught Key issues considered in this book include Studying reading in terms of extending young people's ability to interpret and enjoy texts The idea of reading as a social practice The concept of culture in relation to reading Why historical and spatial theoretical perspectives matter when researching and teaching reading This book is a valuable resource for any student teachers or practising English teachers wishing to learn more about the connection between researching and teaching reading how to combine them in the classroom and the positive effect bringing the two together can have on their own professional development      Nigeria's Third-Generation Literature Ode Ogede, 2023-03-10 This book considers the evolution and characteristics of Nigeria's third generation literature which emerged between the late 1980s and the early 1990s and is marked by expressive modes and concerns distinctly different from those of the preceding era The creative writing of this period reflects new sensibilities and anxieties about Nigeria's changing fortunes in the post colonial era The literature of the third generation is startling in its candidness irreverence as well as the brutal self disclosure of its characters and it is governed by an unusually wide ranging sweep in narrative techniques This book examines six key texts of the oeuvre Maria Ajima s The Web Okey Ndibe s Foreign Gods Inc Teju Cole s Open City Chika Unigwe s On Black Sisters Street Lola Shoneyin s The Secret Lives of Baba Segi s Wives and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie s The Thing Around Your Neck The texts interpret contemporary corruption and other unspeakable social malaise together they point to the exciting future of Nigerian literature which has always been defined by its daring creativity and inventive expressive modes Even conventional storytelling strategies receive revitalizing energies in these angst driven narratives This book will be of interest to students and researchers of contemporary African literature Sociology Gender and women s studies and post colonial cultural expression more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Meeting the Third World Challenge Alasdair I. MacBean,V. N. Balasubramanyam,1978-01-01 Education for Development Quarterly ,1970 Implementing EU Mobility Partnerships Fanny Tittel-Mosser,2020-06-08 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of the effectiveness of Mobility Partnerships and their consequences for third countries Mobility partnerships between the EU and third countries are usually viewed as reflecting asymmetric power relations where development aid trade relations and visa policies are made conditional upon the cooperation by third countries with an EU agenda of migration control This book argues that three main factors condition the relevance of Mobility Partnerships the state of relations between EU Member States and a third country and in particular the role of postcolonial ties the power of negotiation of a third country which is linked to its geopolitical importance for the EU and its administrative capacity which is understood as the capacity of a state to define and implement policies and to legislate and enforce the law The work combines a comparative legal analysis of the development of the legal and policy frameworks in the cases of Morocco and Cape Verde with an empirical study of the implementation of Mobility Partnerships projects The analysis demonstrates that Mobility Partnerships despite their non binding nature have legal and policy relevance for these third countries with regard to the regulation of migration asylum human trafficking and even labour law As such this book makes a contribution to the understanding of the interplay between the interests of EU Member State and third country actors in the implementation of the Mobility Partnerships The book will be a key resource for academics and students focusing on Migration Law EU Studies Geopolitics and African Studies The empirical approach will also appeal to policy makers international organisation representatives and NGOs Resources in Education ,1997 The Scottish Educational Journal ,1921 International Migration Outlook 2017 OECD,2017-06-29 The 2017 edition of International Migration Outlook the 41st edition analyses recent developments in migration movements and policies in OECD countries and selected non member countries Engineering World ,1921 Machinery Market ,1928 The Status of Youth in Agrifood Systems Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, The world s agrifood systems stand at a crossroads With 1.3 billion youth globally the future of food livelihoods and economic resilience depends on their participation in agrifood systems At the same time agrifood systems need youth to drive productivity innovation and sustainability in a crucial and rapidly evolving sector FAO's The Status of Youth in Agrifood Systems report is a call to action It presents the most comprehensive evidence based analysis of youth in agrifood systems to date highlighting both the opportunities and structural barriers that shape their engagement It explores how transforming agrifood systems can enhance decent job opportunities and food security for youth and how empowered youth can drive this transformation It concludes highlighting policy recommendations and areas of investments to foster more equitable and sustainable agrifood systems where rural youth are both beneficiaries and leaders of change

United States Relations with South Africa Y. G.-M. Lulat, 2008 Relations between the United States and South Africa or the parts of the world these nations now occupy go nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions This book is a critical overview of these relations from the late seventeenth century to the present Unprecedented in its scope and supported by substantive and detailed notes together with an extensive bibliography chronology glossary and appendices the book distinguishes itself from extant works in a number of other ways Set against the backdrop of a wider interdisciplinary exploration of both ideational and structural issues of historical context it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Methodologically written from the perspectives of both traditional narrative history and Khaldunian interpretive historical analysis the book consequently sits at the interdisciplinary interstice of political economy and sociology where the aim is to advance our understanding of the Braudelian interconnectedness of world history as an important diachronic determinant of the diplomacy of foreign relations Written for both scholars and policy analysts this book's examination of the agency of the marginalized should also be of interest to activists and the reading public
