Call it "your last thought" that settles the entire dispute satisfactorily: simply let your mind, through its own energy, produce something other than this foolish paper. In fact, the last thought that you're having has been your "last" thought, and there's nothing more to it. Just stop thinking this about yourself and your mind. If you do that, you'll be free of all your mind's chatter. That's the secret: your paper is the only friend.
