High-Poverty, High-Performing Schools Ovid K. Wong, 2011-12-16 In a recent international comparative study the United States public schools did not fare well with the rest of the world To the disappointment of many the No Child Left Behind law did little to improve student achievement Nevertheless a small pocket of poverty schools worked against the odds of limited resources and performed to new heights of academic excellence These high poverty high performing schools were studied to identify the common trends and to reveal their secrets of success The secrets include a unique combination of leadership curriculum instruction assessment and evaluation Can the high poverty high performing schools be the success model of our next generation schools As concerned citizens and stakeholders of education we need to find out how our country can get back on track to become an educational leader again so we may compete in the fierce global economy

The Life of a Cotton Picking Coaching Preacher Bill Laird, 2012-03 This book is the synopsis of three areas of an individual's life and his family It begins with his ancestors in the mid 19th century and concludes with the present life of his family in 2011 It includes his family life on cotton farms as a youth and his careers as a football basketball and track coach and finally several years as a minister

School Choice Or Best Systems Margaret C Wang, Herbert J. Walberg, 2001-03 This book addresses one of the most urgent questions in American society today one that is currently in the spotlight and hotly debated on all sides Who shall rule the schools parents or educators School Choice or Best Systems What Improves Education presents an overview of research and practical applications of innovative even radical school reforms being implemented across the United States These fall along a continuum ranging from parental choice to best systems At the one extreme are schools of choice which allow parents to choose and even govern schools for their children These include charter schools traditional private and parochial schools schools that are privately governed but publicly funded through vouchers and those that are funded by private scholarships provided by both corporations and wealthy individuals At the other extreme are centralized state or district systems based on reform initiatives and new systems of education that have been developed in response to views of citizens and legislators that schools can do much better These schools which specify uniform goals policies and programs for each school are highly innovative systems based on research or representing advanced thinking about what works and have attracted wide interest Important questions related to schools of choice and best systems are addressed How can we choose among schools of choice and best systems Among the various approaches within each of these alternatives How can we understand their guiding principles and operational practices What results do they produce How can we evaluate their claims In choosing among the alternatives how should issues of student achievement accountability costs feasibility and equity be factored in This volume brings together leading researchers and education leaders who have carried out the latest studies and advances in the field providing a forum for them to set forth the arguments and evidence that will be most helpful in making choices for tomorrow s schools It does not provide a single right answer values and preferences differ across parents schools districts and states However there are benefits for all from seeing the rigorous research challenging thinking and alternate points of view this volume presents Educating African American Males Olatokunbo S. Fashola,2005-03-23 Bringing unique perspectives from the field this resource offers multiple perspectives on African American male achievement from top scholars in the field of urban education Crespar Findings (1994-1999) A. Wade Boykin,Robert E. Slavin,2014-10-13 This double issue presents summaries of the scholarly and practical reform accomplishments of the first five years of the Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk CRESPAR This bold five year initiative addressed several of the problems that most directly challenge the values and practical aspirations of modern democracies The included articles emphasize how CRESPAR has focused on the schools in many of America s most challenging communities It has both helped local schools improve themselves and advanced the nation s research base This issue was written in commemoration of the life and work of John Henry Hollifield Jr founding coeditor For 28 years Hollifield served as an editor and administrator at Johns Hopkins University s Center for Social Organization of Schools When JESPAR was just an idea Hollifield was one of the people who most strongly advocated its development He had a ready smile a fine editorial touch and a relentless will to produce each excellent issue This issue summarizing much of the research from CRESPAR s first five years is presented by the full team of authors in his loving memory My Child Mattie Gaskins,2021-11-08 My Child By Mattie Gaskins Get Ready You are about to embark on the autobiographical journey of my daughter She was born into the early 80 s the day after Christmas and since then she has been putting her stamp down on this world Read as I take you from day one with me delivering her at the hospital alone to me raising her semi alone all the way through college graduation and then with her testimony of her beating Cancer twice Follow us through the day of diagnosis through being diagnosed again after being in remission for 23 months on through her Bone Marrow Transplant and beyond Find out what she is doing today and what she s developing for preparation and implementation tomorrow Open Book Carmen S Seguinot Matos,2024-01-16 Have you ever wondered who you are and why you re here There are many who question who they are in the world thrown into a whirlwind of confusion without warning Carmen Seguinot Matos was one of those people who questioned her identity with good reason We are born We live our lives based on what is given to us starting from birth through to adulthood It could be prosperous good fair bad or horrible If you think about the great uncertainty that surrounds us when we are born you must admit there should be a manual to guide newborns into a successful life Our parents should have a goal for us that will lead to victory It s a good thing there is such a manual the Bible God s infinite Word The goal all parents should have is for their children to have hearts for Jesus and live victorious lives into adulthood God uses a variety of different ways to help us become strong vital servants of Jesus Christ Instead of shrinking back in the face of the struggles and challenges of this world let s look up to the Lord and seek His strength plan and purpose Come and let Carmen tell you a little bit about herself you may have more in common than you would have imagined Board of Education of the City of Chicago V.
